Note.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

Mr. Morgan presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance appointed at the Diocesan Convention of 1909, has held several meetings, has conferred with the Committee on Canons and as a result of its deliberations recommends the following:

PROPOSED CANON.

COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN FINANCES.

SECTION I. (1) At every Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint four laymen and two clergymen who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Diocese ex-officio shall constitute a Committee on Diocsean Finances. Vacancies in said Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessement of money for any purpose shall be referred to this Committee, which shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds and co-operation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention. It shall keep a record of its meetings, and shall report to the Annual Convention.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the total of the amounts fixed by the Convention for the following objects respectively:

(a) The Episcopal Fund.

(b) The Diocesan Fund.

(c) Diocesan Missions.

(5) The Treasurer also, under such direction, shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

SECTION II. (1) The assessment for the objects named in Section I (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation, as shown by its Annual Report.

For the purpose of determining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for the objects following, viz.:

Salaries and wages.

Lighting, heating, insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings used for church purposes, supplies, and the support of services.

The notification to each Parish, Mission or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions or Congregations according to the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation and shall make assessments based on such classification.

(2) The Annual Report of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be presented on the first day of the Annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer.

(3) The Treasurer shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rate of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of February, which notice shall invite said Parish, Mission or Congregation to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause if any why said assessement should be modified or corrected.

(4) The assessement so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of April, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

The amounts of such assessment shall be charged by the Treasurer of the Diocese against the Parishes, Missions or Congregations severally and respectively, and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal instalments, one on the first day of April and the other on the first day of October next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same. It shall be the further duty of the Treasurer to report to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all Parishes, Missions or Congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against such Parishes, Missions or Congregations for Diocesan purposes.

(5) The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of the current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of Parishes, Missions or Congregations shall be adopted as in the case of the assessment for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for the notification, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for the Diocesan assessments, shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments except that they shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions and not to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SECTION III. There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment consisting of the Committee and the five Archdeacons ex-officio.

It shall be duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive and to consider any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of April in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and notify any Parish, Mission or Congregation if a change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustment as it shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any Parish, Mission or Congregation, for Domestic and Foreign Missions upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that it may make in any apportionment made by him.

SECTION IV. The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese, and by any other Treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

Whenever the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall deem advisable it may confer with the Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund and with any other Trustees or Boards of the Convention, and with the Treasurers of any organizations under the jurisdiction of the Convention for the purpose of harmonizing and simplifying the financial affairs and methods of the Convention and the Diocese.

Your Committee offers also the following proposed substitute for Canon VI.

PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE FOR CANON VI.

CANON VI.

OF THE TREASURER OF THE DIOCESE.

SECTION I. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Diocese who shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified. The Treasurer shall perform such duties as from time to time shall be prescribed by Canon and shall act as financial agent for the Diocese for the receipt and disbursement of moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, except contributions for Domestic and Foreign Missions. He shall safely keep and account for all moneys or funds that shall come into his hands and shall deposit the same in such banks or places of deposit as the Committee on Diocesan Finances may authorize. He shall keep accurate books of account which shall be open to inspection of the Committee on Diocesan Finances, and give such information upon the finances of the Diocese and the conduct of his office as may be required by the Committee. He shall submit annually to the Convention a report of the receipts and disbursements of the Diocese. He shall give the bond or security that from time to time may be required by the Committee on Diocesan Finances and the expense thereof shall be paid out of the fund for Diocesan Expenses.

SECTION II. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment shall be made by the Convention.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN, Chairman,
FRANCIS LYNDE STETSON,
HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
STEPHEN BAKER,
GEORGE R. VAN DE WATER,
GEORGE ALEXANDER STRONG.

November 7, 1910.

On motion, the report was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Courtney, D.D., moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to submit the proposed Canon on Suffragan Bishops, which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney presented the following Canon and moved its reference to the Committee on Canons, and it was so referred:

OF SUFFRAGAN BISHOPS.

All nominations to this office, which shall be in writing over the signatures of the proposer and seconder, shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall submit them to the Bishop of the Diocese for his approval in writing, which being secured they shall afterward be submitted to the Convention for its action thereupon. In the election of a Bishop the two orders shall always vote separately.

The Secretary announced the following appointments of Assistant Secretaries:

Rev. H. R. HULSE.
Rev. F. H. CHURCH. Rev. C. K. GILBERT.

The Rev. L. W. Batten, D.D., moved that the Rules of Order be suspended to present the report of the Committee on Wider Distribution of Official Positions, which was adopted.

Dr. Batten presented the following report, and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Canons, which was adopted:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON WIDER DISTRIBUTION OF OFFICIAL POSITIONS.

At the Diocesan Convention of 1909 the following resolution was adopted:

> "WHEREAS, in a Diocese as large as New York, it is desirable that there be a wide distribution of official positions, so that as many as possible of the clergy and laity shall have a responsible share in the conduct of Diocesan affairs, therefore, be it > Resolved, that a Committee of six clergymen and five laymen be appointed by the Bishop to consider this whole question and to report to the next Diocesan Convention."

The undersigned, appointed as such Committee by the Bishop, report as follows:

The only official positions to which they have considered it possible to give consideration under the above resolution are those to which appointments are made at the Diocesan Convention: either by election by the Convention or by appointment by the Bishop, in pursuance of the Canons or of the Rules of Order; or by appointment for special purposes, in pursuance of resolutions adopted by the Convention.

The Committee recognize that in the holding of such official positions the first requisite is efficiency, and that, in so far as is consistent with efficiency, there should be such a distribution of official positions among both the clergymen and the laymen of the Diocese (particularly among the latter) as will afford a wide opportunity for active participation in the work of the Church and will develop loyalty and personal interest.

In regard to a number of the Boards and Committees thus elected or appointed the Committee are of opinion that, within certain limits, a rotation in office is desirable. They appreciate that upon certain of the more important of the Boards and Committees the services of experienced members are needed, and therefore they consider that in most cases one-fifth of the membership of such Boards or Committees should retire annually; but, in order that opportunity may be given for change in membership, they believe that in such cases the retiring members should be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term. One result of such an arrangement would be that certain appointments which now are annual would become terms of two, four or five years. It is believed that by this method not only would efficiency be secured, but that there would be realized opportunity for the wider distribution of official positions contemplated by the resolution and of which the Committee approve.

They recommend no change in the present method of the annual election by the Diocesan Convention of the Secretary and of the Treasurer, and of Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and of the Appointment of Assistant Secretaries. Conditions in regard to the Deputies to the General Convention are of a peculiar character; for, as experience has shown, it is essential to the efficiency and influence of this Diocese in the General Convention that the Clerical and Lay Deputies should be men not only of the requisite character and ability, but also, whenever possible, men of special experience in the methods and procedure of General Conventions.

In regard to the Boards of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund; of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund; of the Parochial Fund; of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention; and of the Sands Fund, they recommend no change at present in the manner of their election, which is by the Diocesan Convention. These Boards are the custodians of important trust funds, and in some instances are incorporated. In connection with them questions necessarily are involved which lead the Committee to the conclusion that, should the Convention deem it desirable to apply the principle of rotation in office in these cases, the matter should be made the subject of a special and separate consideration.

In regard to the appointment of Special Committees annually by the Bishop, under resolutions adopted by the Convention, the Committee recommend no change. An examination of the list of members of existing Special Committees, as it appears in the Journal of the last Convention, shows a wide distribution of these positions among the clergy and laity of the diocese.

The Committees and Boards in which a change in the manner of election or appointment is believed by the Committee to be desirable and practicable, in accordance with the principle above suggested, are:

First. The Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The Deputies to the Federate Council.

The Deputies to the Missionary Council.

The elected members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions.

The Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York.

In regard to these the Committee recommend as follows:

That the members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese (four clergymen and four laymen) should hold office for four years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term; and that the same method should be applied to the Deputies to the Missionary Council, being four clergymen and four laymen.

That the Deputies to the Federate Council (eight clergymen and eight laymen) should hold office for four years; that two clergymen and two laymen should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

That the elected members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions (five clergymen and five laymen) should hold office for five years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term; and that the same method should be applied to the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York, being five clergymen and five laymen (subject to such change in the Constitution of the Seminary as may be made in accordance with the action heretofore taken by this Convention for the surrender of the right of election).

Second. The Rules of Order provide for the appointment by the Bishop at the opening of the Convention of seven Committees of the Convention, of which six are called Standing Committees.

The Committee recommend no change in the number or the method of appointment of the Committee on Lay Delegates, or of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

They recommend that the membership of the Standing Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, which consists of one clergyman and two laymen, should be increased to four, namely: two clergymen and two laymen, who should hold office for two years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

That the members of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund, which consists of two clergymen and two laymen, should hold office for two years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

That the members of the Committee on Canons, which consists of four clergymen and four laymen, should hold office for four years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

That the Committee on the General Theological Seminary, which consists of three clergymen and three laymen, should be increased to eight, namely: four clergymen and four laymen, who should hold office for four years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

That the Committee on Miscellaneous Business, which consists of two clergymen and three laymen, should be increased to eight, namely: four clergymen and four laymen, to hold office for four years; that one clergyman and one layman should retire annually and be ineligible for one year after the expiration of their term.

The Committee recommend that no clergyman or layman shall be eligible for membership in more than one of the five following Boards or Committees at the same time, namely: the Standing Committee of the Diocese; the Deputies to the Federate Council; the Deputies to the Missionary Council; the elected members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions; and the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York.

The Committee recommend also that provision be made for the annual appointment by the Bishop of a Nominating Committee, to present, at the next following annual Convention, nominations for membership in each of the five Boards or Committees last mentioned, and also at the proper time for Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

If approved by the Convention, the proposed changes in the term of office of members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and of Deputies to the Federate Council will require amendments of Canon XII and of Canon XI, respectively; the proposed changes in the constitution and term of office of the members of certain of the Standing Committees of the Convention appointed by the Bishop will require an amendment of Sec. 5 of Article V of the Rules of Order; and it will be necessary for the Convention to provide by resolution for the classification of the members of the Boards and Committees affected by these changes, for the filling of vacancies occurring in the intervals between annual Conventions, prohibiting membership at the same time in more than one of the five Boards or Committees last above mentioned, and for a Nominating Committee.

The Committee therefore move that Section 1 of Canon XII (entitled "Of the Standing Committee") be amended so that it shall read as follows:

"The Standing Committee shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, who shall hold office for four years, and of whom one clergyman and one layman shall be elected by ballot at every stated Convention. Vacancies in said Committee occurring by death or otherwise shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay members of the Committee until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention, no member of this Committee shall be eligible for one year after the expiration of his term."

The Committee move that Canon XI (entitled "Of Deputies to the Federate Council") be amended so that it shall read as follows: "The Deputies to the Federate Council shall consist of eight clergymen and eight laymen, who shall hold office for four years, and of whom two clergymen and two laymen shall be elected by ballot at every stated Convention. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop until the next annual Convention. Except in the case of Deputies appointed by the Bishop to fill vacancies until the next annual Convention, no Deputy shall be eligible for one year after the expiration of his term."

The Committee move that Sec. 5 of Article V of the Rules of Order be amended so that it shall read as follows:

"V. The appointment of Six Standing Committees, or of certain members thereof, by the President:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, one Clergyman and one Layman, to replace those whose terms expire.

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, one Clergyman and one Layman, to replace those whose terms expire, with the Treasurer.

(c) On the Treasurer's report, three Laymen.

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, one Clergyman and one Layman, to replace those whose terms expire.

(e) On Canons, one Clergyman and one Layman, to replace those whose terms expire.

(f) On Miscellaneous Business, one Clergyman and one Layman, to replace those whose terms expire.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may submit a report or reports to the succeeding Convention."

The Committee also offer the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, that within thirty days after the adjournment of this Convention the members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese; of the Deputies to the Federate Council; of the Deputies to the Missionary

Council; of the elected members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions; of the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York; of the Standing Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches; of the Standing Committee on Canons; of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund; of the Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary; and of the Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Business, respectively, shall divide themselves by lot into classes to hold office for terms of one, two, three, four or five years, respectively, as may be, and as provided by the foregoing recommendations, the term of each class to expire at a stated Diocesan Convention, or, if no election or appointment shall be had at such time, upon the appointment or election of their successors; and shall notify the Secretary of this Convention in writing of the result of such division. If at the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of this Convention the members of either of the foregoing bodies shall have failed to notify the Secretary of the Convention that its membership has been so divided into classes, the Secretary shall at once proceed to divide the membership of such body into classes by lot as above provided.

2. Resolved, that all vacancies occurring in the membership of the Boards and Committees mentioned in the foregoing resolution, in the intervals between annual Diocesan Conventions, shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancies shall be filled by the Convention for the balance of the term of the vacant membership, except in the case of the Standing Committee of the Diocese and of the Deputies to the Federate Council; as to which provision for the filling of vacancies is made by Canon; and further that, except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention, no member of either of such Boards and Committees shall be eligible for one year after the expiration of his term.

3. Resolved, that no Clergyman or Layman shall be eligible for membership in more than one of the five following Boards or Committees at the same time, namely:

1. The Standing Committee of the Diocese.
2. The Deputies to the Federate Council.
3. The Deputies to the Missionary Council.
4. The elected Members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions.
5. The Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York.

4. Resolved, that at each annual Diocesan Convention, or within thirty days thereafter, a committee of three Clergymen and three Laymen shall be appointed by the Bishop, to be known as the Nominating Committee, which shall place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting of the following annual Convention, a list of nominations for the Standing Committee of the Diocese, the Deputies to the Federate Council, the Deputies to the Missionary Council, the Elected Members of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions, and the Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York; the number of nominations in each case being double the number of positions in such Boards or Committees to be filled by election at such Convention. The Nominating Committee shall present also, in like manner, nominations for Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, in number double the number of such positions to be filled, before each annual Convention at which such Deputies and Provisional Deputies are to be elected. Nominations so sent in to the Secretary by the Nominating Committee shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, together with all other nominations for such positions, at the time and in the manner provided by Canon IX; but nominations made by the Nominating Committee shall be stated upon the ballot to be the nominations of such Committee and shall be printed separately at the head of the ballot. The provisions of Canon IX in relation to the form of the ballot, the method of voting, and the posting of nominations shall apply to nominations made by the Nominating Committee in pursuance of this resolution.

In case the proposed amendments of Canons XII and XI and of the Rules of Order and the foregoing resolutions are adopted, it will be desirable to make certain amendments of Canon IX (entitled "Concerning Elections") and of other Canons; but the Committee consider it best to make no motion to that end until after the Convention has taken action upon the recommendations of this report. The substance of the changes proposed by the foregoing resolutions, if approved by the Convention, should, in the opinion of the Committee, finally be incorporated in the Canons of the Diocese, and the Committee respectfully suggest that that subject be considered by the Committee on Canons in the interval before the next annual Convention. The Committee believe, however, that the adoption at the present time of the amendments and resolutions now offered would provide adequately for putting into effect at once all the recommendations of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Lewis Parkes,
L. W. Batten,
Hugh Birckhead,
Charles E. Brugler,
F. B. Van Kleeck,
Alex. G. Cummins,

Charles H. Russell,
Joseph Baldwin.

Dr. Batten moved the adoption of the resolutions appended to the Report.

The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D., moved that the consideration of the resolutions be postponed until after the report of the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. A .G. Cummins, Litt.D., moved as a substitute that the resolutions be considered now. The substitute was adopted.

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson moved that the matter be postponed until after the Bishop's Address. The motion was adopted.

The Rev. W. W. Page, D.D., offered the following and moved its reference to the Committee on Canons, and it was so referred:

CANON XVIII.

Section 3.

Moved that Section 3, Canon XVIII., be amended to read as follows:

Section 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively:

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.
2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.
3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the counties of Westchester, Putnam and Rockland.
4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster and Sullivan.
5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry (1) to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; (2) to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; (3) to have full management of its funds; (4) to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop. It shall be his duty (1) to superintend all work conducted by the Archdeaconry; (2) to have direction of all clergy, parishes and associated missions as Vicar of the Bishop; (3) to make full and regular report of the same to the Bishop and to the Archdeaconry; and (4) in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings, and shall receive a salary for assistance of not less than $1,000.00.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Archdeacon, Secretary and Treasurer, and make, before the annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention, a full report of the year's work.

The Rev. George H. Toop moved that a recess of one hour be taken, which was adopted.

The Convention reassembled at 2:20 P. M.

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., for the Committee on the Despatch of Business, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That all reports specified in Section 7 of Rule 5 of the Rules of Order be presented and read by title only, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Bishop of the Diocese read his Annual Address.

The Rev. L. W. Batten, D.D., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the election of a Suffragan Bishop be made the order of the day to-morrow, immediately upon the adoption of a Canon governing the same.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. W. T. Manning, D.D., offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That that portion of the Bishop's address relating to the formation of a Church Extension Society be referred to a Committee of Five, to be appointed by the Chair.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. G. H. Toop offered the following amendment to Canon XVIII., and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Canons, which was adopted.

CANON XVIII.

Strike out of Canon XVIII.:

The title.

Section 1.

Section 2, with Subsections I. and II.

Title of Canon XVIII.

"Of the Church Missionary Society of the Diocese of New York."

Enact a new Section 1, as follows:

Section 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Church Missionary Society of the Diocese of New York.

Enact a new Section 2, as follows:

I. Upon the Church Missionary Society shall devolve responsibility for the missionary work of the Church in the Diocese of New York. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be, ex-officio, the president of the Society. An Executive Committee of seven clergymen and seven laymen shall form its executive body, to be elected by ballot or viva voce by the Convention. The Committee shall serve for one year. It shall meet monthly, except in June, July, August, December and March, or oftener upon call of its chairman.

II. The chairman of the Executive Committee shall be a Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese or another elected for missionary work, under direction of the Bishop of the Diocese. The Committee shall also elect a recording secretary, to keep minutes of its meetings, and a treasurer, who shall, if elected by them, act as the treasurer for all missionary organizations of the Diocese. The Committee shall have power to fix and pay salaries of its officers and employees who give time to its work, and to do such other things as are essential to an aggressive missionary policy.

III. The Executive Committee may appoint a Financial Committee and a General Co-operating Committee, and members of these Committees need not be members of the Executive Committee. If the Co-operating Committee is named it shall be representative of all missionary organizations and all parts of the Diocese. The purposes of these Committees are indicated by their names.

IV. The word "missionary" as employed in this Canon shall be understood in its broad sense. It covers the work of missions in the Diocese, that part of the work of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society for which this Diocese is responsible, educational, social, relief and all other work that would spread the Gospel in the Diocese and increase gifts of men and money from the Diocese for world evangelization.

Renumber Section 3 and re-enact it, with its divisions of 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 and subsections I., II., III., and IV., as Section 6. In the subsection IV. strike out all after the word "make" and conclude the subsection thus: "an annual report to the Church Missionary Society of the Diocese."

Strike out all of Section 4, and all divisions and subsections to the end of the Canon. Enact a new Section 3, as follows:

Section 3. The Society shall—

I. As far as able, strengthen present parishes and missions in the Diocese by assisting them to pay mortgage debts, to purchase land subject to Canons governing such purchase, to erect buildings, to augment salaries of clergymen in charge of parishes and missions, and to do all other things that may make the Church in the Diocese better equipped for work at home, and better able to contribute to work elsewhere.

II. As far as able, and by and with the consent of organizations affected, assist the work of Church Extension, City Mission, Seamen's Institute, Sunday School Commission, Social Service Commission, and all other organized missionary work in the Diocese. It shall not have power to abridge the right of any organization to collect money for its own work, nor to take from it any rights which it now enjoys by Canon or exercises by custom.

III. As far as able, promote the meeting of apportionments of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society upon the parishes and missions of the Diocese. To this end it shall have power to enter upon educational and such other work as may promote meeting of such apportionments.

IV. Have power to lay conditions upon parishes and missions of the Diocese in so far as requiring that if it help in the payment of debts, or otherwise, parishes and missions assisted shall, without unreasonable delay, contribute to general missionary causes for which the Society is responsible.

Enact a new Section 4, as follows:

Section 4. The Society shall apportion annually among the parishes and missions of the Diocese, one lump sum for each, amounts needed to cover apportionments to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, to Diocesan missionary organizations, and to such other causes as the Convention shall direct, together with detailed specifications concerning objects for which apportioned amounts are asked. It may require all contributions to be remitted to its treasurer, to be by him distributed to causes designated, or by the Society apportioned to work which it has in hand.

Enact a new Section 5, as follows:

Section 5—

I. The Society shall have power to hold annual Missionary Councils, to issue missionary literature, and to do all other things aiming to advance the work of the Church in the Diocese along the lines committed to its care. In its discretion it may delegate work to individual laymen and laywomen, or to organizations, requiring from them detailed reports of work accomplished. It shall make the largest possible use of volunteer lay effort.

II. The Society shall have power to arrange missionary meetings at Convention, and the Convention shall sit as the Missionary Society of the Diocese to hear reports of work accomplished and contemplated. To this end all organizations co-operating shall make reports to the Society, but presentation of work to the Convention by the Society shall not affect the right of organizations to report to the Convention as heretofore.

Enact a new section 7, as follows:

Section 7. Nine members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

A considerable number of gentlemen who have studied the matter with much care favor the following after the end of subsection IV., in Section 2:

Strike out Section 2, with its divisions 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, and its subsections I., II., III. and IV., and Section 4, with all of its divisions and subsections to the end of the Canon. Enact a new Section 6, as follows:

Section 6. Establishing the Church in new communities and among peoples of foreign tongues, commonly called Church extension, and of caring for missions and dependent parishes that have not attained self-support shall be in charge of the Church Missionary Society. The Executive Committee of the Society shall nominate to the Bishop, for appointment by him, all missionaries, and shall fix and pay their salaries. It shall compile statistics of population of communities, results of missionary efforts made by it, and perform such other work as shall tend to create and maintain an aggressive and efficient Church extension policy in all parts of the Diocese.

The Rev. Dr. Batten read the Resolutions appended to the Report of the Committee on the Wider Distribution of Official Positions.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved the first two resolutions, and they were adopted.

Dr. Cummins moved the third resolution, which was adopted.

Dr. Batten moved the fourth resolution.

The Rev. J. M. Chew offered the following amendment:

Resolved, That the Committee on Nominations shall receive, in writing, nominations made for the several elective offices; and, in case of the nomination of the same individual for more than one office, that it shall so report to the Convention, on the first day of Convention, so that any nominations may be withdrawn to correct such condition; and that all nominations so corrected shall be printed alike upon the ballots submitted to this Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention deeply appreciates but cannot consent to accept the self-sacrificing offer of the Bishop of the Diocese in his address to relinquish a portion of his salary in view of the contemplated election of a Bishop Suffragan.

The Secretary put the question, and the resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. Henry Lewis Morris presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING NOVEMBER 7, 1910.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 416 Lafayette Street, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Archdeacon of New York, and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House and Schoolhouse at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,493.03, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the Church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82; the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land, Church Buildings and Rectory at Montrose, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land and Church Buildings at Verplancks, Westchester County, occupied by the Chapel of St. Barnabas.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Under the Will of Reverend Henry Barker, $2,000 have been received, the income to be paid half-yearly to the Treasurer for the time being of All Saints' Church, Rosendale, the same to go in aid of the stipend of the Rector or Clergyman in charge, and not for debts or general working expenses, with a provision that if the work is abandoned, the Bishop and Archdeacon shall decide upon the application of the income according to the provisions of the Will.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, leased to Christ Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $10,500; the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary as such Rector.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the church and grounds.

The title to the land occupied by St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, of Mamaroneck, Westchester County, is to revert to this corporation upon the failure of the parish, which holds a conditional title, to carry out the terms of the grants of the property.

Endowment Fund for this parish, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company, of the par value of $4,500; the income to be applied to the expenses of the parish.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $29,014.55.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, and a Mission Chapel at Lincoln Park, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church, and also an Endowment Fund of $25,000, to be held as a memorial to William F. Cochran, the income to be paid to the corporation of St. Andrew's Memorial Church.

Loomis Memorial Chapel (known as the Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician), to be held as a memorial to Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services. Endowment Fund of $10,000 for the support of the church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street, east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

Endowment Fund of $89,086.64; the income to be paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the city of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Buildings thereon, known as All Saints' Church, leased to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank Garman, James A. Burnham and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services. Endowment Fund, consisting of three bonds of $1,000 each, American Telephone and Telegraph Company four per cent. collateral trust, and $11,364.08 in cash; all to be held and the income paid over for the support of the Church.

Church of the Holy Apostles, Borough of Manhattan, Endowment Fund. This fund was commenced in 1901, and the sums received, with accumulated interest, now amount to $20,000, and the income is paid to the Treasurer, to be used for general expenses of the Church.

Also two bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway for $1,000 each, bearing five per cent. interest, the income to be paid to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be used for the Fresh Air Work of the parish; and a $1,000 bond of the City of New York, the income to be applied for the benefit of the Sunday School of the parish, the fund to be known as the "John P. Collard Fund."

Another fund was commenced in 1907. The income received is to be added to principal sums until $30,000 are accumulated, after which the income is to be paid to the Treasurer for the general expenses of the Church. This fund at the present time, with accumulations of income, amounts to $28,817.38. An addition was made to this fund during the year of $3,000.

Fund of $5,000, held under the Will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

Fund of $10,000, received under the Will of Mary Beach Tousey, the income to be paid to the Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be expended in the employment of a competent and devout woman to care for the poor and sick in the neighborhood of said Church.

Endowment Fund for the benefit of St. John's Church, Yonkers, invested in registered bond of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $50,000, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the city of Yonkers.

St. Andrew's Church, at Richmond, Staten Island. Received from Robert Fleming Crooks one three per cent. Northern Pacific general lien bond for $1,000, the income to be paid to the Rector or Treasurer of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, Staten Island, to be by him expended for the special care of the burial plot belonging to Robert Fleming Crooks in the churchyard and for the benefit of the Church, with the hope that the Cross, Memorial Window and Tablet will be cared for in years to come.

St. Stephens Church in the City of New York. Endowment Fund amounting to Eighty-seven thousand five hundred Dollars, the income to be paid to St. Stephens Church, and in case that corporation shall cease to exist, then the Fund is to revert to Trinity Church Corporation.

The term of office of two of the Trustees, Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., and Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D.D., have expired October 1st, 1910, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

The Treasurer's report, submitted herewith, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of Eight hundred and forty thousand eight hundred and fifteen Dollars and eleven cents ($840,815.11).

Income collected and paid beneficiaries, $35,188.26.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of John J. Atterbury and George A. Crocker.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

The Treasurer of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York begs leave to present the following report of the trust funds in his hands for the year ending October 30th, 1910:

CATHERINE LORILLARD WOLFE FUND.

For endowment of No. 416 Lafayette Street (formerly No. 29 Lafayette Place), New York City.

EDMUND L. BAYLIES, Treasurer.

NEW YORK CITY, October 30, 1910.

The undersigned have examined the foregoing accounts and have found them correct, and have found the securities and cash as called for.

J. F. ATTERBURY,
GEORGE A. CROCKER, JR.,
Auditing Committee.

NEW YORK CITY, November 4, 1910.

The Rev. Wm. T. Manning, D.D., and the Rev. Cornelius B. Smith, D.D., were nominated as Trustees, to succeed themselves, and were duly elected.

REPORT

THE SEVENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

In this seventy-ninth annual report of the Society we record with sorrow the loss to the Board in the deaths of Mr. William G. Davies and Mr. George R. Schieffelin. Mr. Davies had been a member of the Board since 1895, a member of its Executive Committee, and deeply interested and helpful in all its activities. Mr. Schieffelin had been a member of the Board for the unusually long period of forty-two years, and the Society's legal advisor also during the entire time, to whose caution and wisdom the Society owes much. While in later years unable to be present at many of the meetings, he never failed in any emergency to give of his time and strength, until within a few months of his death.

Our staff for the past year has numbered twenty-one clergymen, three deaconnesses, three lay readers, and over forty lay workers in various departments. Their work, as far as it can be tabulated, is as follows for the Convention year of November 1, 1909, to November 1, 1910.

Number of Places where Services are Held	36
Number of Services	3,996
Holy Communion (Public, 1,219; Private, 1,967)	3,186
Communions Made	13,041
Communicants Registered	1,345
Baptisms (Infants, 1,646; Adults, 496)	2,142
Confirmed	109
Marriages	136
Burials	5,883
Sunday-school Teachers	49
Sunday-school Pupils	1,025
Industrial School Teachers	18
Industrial School Pupils	325
Visits made by the Staff	357,643

I grant you that these figures are startlingly large, but the work is equally so. I find it extremely difficult to impress upon the minds of the Church's people the vast extent of the City Mission work, and its very rapid growth in the past ten years. In this decade the number of clergy has increased by eight, the celebrations of the Holy Communion by 2,500, and baptisms by 1,858, and the visits made by the staff by 257,000. There is no way of recording in concrete figures the comfort brought to dying souls in the chaplain's friendship for the friendless, his warnings to the wayward, his sustaining hand in the struggle toward higher things.

The Treasurer's books show the Society's income to have been as follows for the year ending October 15, 1910:

Income applicable to General Expenses	$69,103 16
Fresh Air Fund	9,261 95
Festival Fund	3,460 20
Special Objects	5,636 89
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc	362 85
	$87,825 05

Through special gifts this is nearly $22,000.00 larger than last year, so that that amount, at least, will have to be added to the contributions for the current year from individuals and Churches, if the work is to be carried on at its present scale.

The problem that is assailing many of the Churches in Harlem is now confronting our Chapel of the Messiah in East 95th Street. Built as a memorial Chapel to minister to the needs of the German-Americans of that neighborhood, it has seen these people moving more and more every year to the outlying districts, and their places being filled by Hebrews and especially by colored people. In fact, at the present time there are more colored families in the immediate vicinity than there are white families connected with, or ministered to, by the Chapel. These colored people are almost all from the West Indies, and have been trained in the Church of England. They need, and have the right to, our ministrations, but it has been found exceedingly difficult to combine the two classes in one congregation. The immediate future must decide whether the Chapel shall continue its white work, or become a Chapel for these colored people. In the meantime, the Chapel's best work is being done among the children, and in the Primary Departments of the Sunday-school under trained teachers, and in the various organizations and clubs they are being taught the Church's ways, and the ways of right living.

St. Cyprian's Chapel to the colored people of the West Side has developed an especially strong industrial work to meet their needs. The largest proportion of its new families are coming to New York from the South. They must have work as soon as they arrive, and this we supply to them through the Sewing Room and the Laundry, which pay them a living wage, and are growing now to the point of self-support.

Our settlement work is admirably carried on by our three Houses, each ministering in its own peculiar way to the people of the neighborhood. St. Barnabas' House has, for more than forty years, opened its doors day or night to any woman and child needing shelter and care, the number running close to two thousand in the year just ended.

God's Providence House, with its library, penny provident and clubs, works along educational and recreational lines, with a most popular Roof Playground, and the oldest Day Nursery in the city.

At the House of Aquila, a Model Flat was established several years ago, and is being carried on by the City Mission Guild of young women from St. George's Church. The point it tries to emphasize is how much better and at how much less cost a flat can be furnished, as shown here, than the homes of the poor generally show. It also teaches daily simple, practical housekeeping and cooking, well within the experience of the people it reaches. This Guild purposes soon to open a similar Flat at St. Cyprian's, where the need is quite as great.

The Fresh Air Fund of the past year was the largest in the Society's history, and we have cared for, at the Sarah Schermerhorn House and Camp Bleecker, at Milford, Connecticut, 1,039 boys and girls, mothers and babies and given 14,500 individual days' board.

Our thanks and appreciation are again due the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who have given, for the seventeenth consecutive year, the Rethmore Home, at Tenafly, New Jersey, for the use of our small children, meeting all the expenses of a happy and healthful summer for these little ones.

The work of the Society which appeals perhaps most to the people of the Church is the ministry to the inmates of the City Institutions. It is not only a privilege, but carries with it a proportionate responsibility, for we maintain the only chaplaincies to the Protestants in all these institutions. The ministry to the sick is one of the Church's peculiar functions, and this has been brought to that high state of efficiency that in the city hospitals, whether for contagious or non-contagious, for emergency or for chronic cases, our chaplains are on duty twenty-four hours every day, to minister to them by word and by the Sacraments.

Let me say a word for the prison work, which consists not only in the holding of services and preaching the gospel, but also in the establishment of that confidence on the part of the prisoner toward the chaplain which leads him to acknowledge his wrong doing in all its details, so it is possible for us, with the picture of the man's life before us, to analyze those conditions which have led him astray, and to seek to remove them from his environment when he returns to it after his prison term. It is not enough to lead a man to repentance; it is also necessary to restore him to his home, his citizenship, and his place in the world which he is fitted to occupy. That we are successful in this many men can testify who, formerly inmates of our prisons, are now leading exemplary and useful lives.

The city sends its first offenders, under thirty years of age, to the Reformatory on Hart's Island, at the mouth of Long Island Sound. Their offences are largely those of homelessness and misdirected energy; they are not criminals at heart. They are there under an indeterminate sentence, by which they may earn their release in three months, or stay until its expiration at the end of three years. These boys are our greatest care.

They earn their parole and return to the city to face life under the old conditions, unless we give them the needed help. Lodgings must be supplied, and proper clothing to enable them to make a good appearance when seeking for work. These chances for positions must also be found for them. They must be watched over and counselled. I would that we had the means to do more of it, for in such cases as we have helped we have yet to find any abuse of our confidence.

This must be more to you than a report of work done, because if it be the Church's work, you, as the Church's representatives, are responsible for its maintenance, so I cannot close without an appeal.

If your hearts are touched—as they must be touched—by the records of the unselfish ministry of our clergy and other workers to those who many times have no other friends, you must express such emotion in the form of visible support, by making it your personal responsibility to see that individuals and parishes assume their proportionate share of the cost of this work to those of whom our Blessed Lord said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,

NEW YORK, November 9, 1910.

Mr. Edmund L. Baylies presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

In presenting the Sixty-sixth Annual Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, we wish to remind you that our charge occupies a place in the work among the sailors of this Port that is unrivalled. We have organized a work for seamen that in breadth of its activities and in its aggressiveness occupies a field of its own.

It is so recognized by the seamen who enjoy its hospitality. Its name and reputation are almost as well known in the ports of Shanghai and Calcutta as along the water front of New York. It has the confidence of parents whose sons follow the sea, and their hearts are rested when they know that their boys have come under the supervision and influence of our Superintendent and his staff. Numerous letters addressed to the Institute bear testimony to this fact.

It is so recognized by those who are interested in the shipping trade. We regularly ship the crews of many of the steamship lines calling at this port, and in emergencies ship owners and masters, whether of sailing or steam vessels, turn to the Institute for help to fill their crew lists.

At the Breakwater at 19 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, accommodating one hundred men, we frequently care for ship-wrecked crews. Only last week the crew of the "Crown Prince," of the Prince Line, wrecked on the Cuban reefs in the recent hurricane, thirty-eight men in all, were cared for by the Institute; and in the same week a crew of twenty-four from the wrecked British tramp steamer "Sierra Morena" were given shelter.

During the past year 10,985 men have been lodged at the Breakwater and the number of men at meals was 15,108.

The foreign consulates with whose shipping offices we come in daily contact, recognize the Institute, and the police of this city well know the value of its activities and influence. A very high authority in shipping matters has officially reported to his government that the healthy competition maintained by the Institute in the shipping of seamen is the most important influence in keeping this Port free from crimps and crimping.

In a word, the Institute has become a municipal, a national and an international organization, performing the work and benefitting seamen in every port. No other Society in this Port has attempted work so broad in its scope, so far-reaching in its influence. During the past year in our free shipping bureau we have shipped 2,361 men and have found temporary work in port on shipboard for 907 men. During the same period we have provided crews for 230 vessels, and regularly supplied men for over 30 different companies and agencies.

During the last year the department devoted to seamen's savings has received from seamen $113,608.79, of which $52,091.86 has been transmitted to the dependent families of these men. There were 2,153 depositors and 939 transmissions. In the same period the reading rooms maintained by the Institute at No. 1 State Street and No. 341 West Street have been visited by 130,606 seamen, a daily average of 417 sailors.

Our Society is now maintaining the following: At No. 1 State Street, on the Battery, its free shipping bureau, seamen's savings department and reading rooms for seamen, apprentices and petty officers; at No. 341 West Street, its reading and recreation rooms for seamen; also the Church of the Holy Comforter, at 341 West Houston Street, and the Floating Church at the foot of Pike Street, and lastly, the "Breakwater," its seamen's hotel in Brooklyn, already referred to.

At the stations of the Society during the past year 6,489 pieces of baggage have been checked, most of this at State Street, where we charge ten cents per piece, which the seamen gladly pay for the security they obtain. This fact bears eloquent testimony to the value which seamen attribute to this phase of our work.

Our Committee on Legislation has been watchful in securing compliance with the laws for the protection of seamen, enacted last year, and described in our last report. Efforts have been made toward securing the general use of life-saving appliances on many classes of vessels.

Our harbor boat "Sentinel" has made 426 trips and visited 2,698 ships during the current year, and has greatly added to the efficiency of the work of our Institute by transporting 1,965 seamen from ship to shore, from harbor to hospitals, and for religious services at the Floating Church.

Our Society has long felt the need of a paper in which to give some account of its work where the problems that confront it might be discussed and its needs made known.

In May we commenced the publication of a monthly paper well named the "Lookout," published at a cost to subscribers of $1.00 per year, but mailed free to every person contributing $2.00 or more yearly to the Society's work. Excellent results have already been obtained by this publication. Our monthly circulation is now 2,000.

How closely we are in touch with the seamen arriving at this Port is further shown by the fact that during the past year at the stations of our Society 26,150 letters were written and received by seamen.

Now as to the religious side of the work. We have proved to the sailors that we can help them in their material wants, and we have their confidence, so that they turn to us freely for advice and spiritual guidance.

Many are trying to conquer their worst enemy, the drink evil, as well as other temptations, and the words of encouragement and advice from our chaplains help them, and they freely show their gratitude to us.

They attend the services at the Floating Church and at the Church of the Holy Comforter and at the "Breakwater" in considerable numbers. They make the service by their presence, for they compose the congregation and do most of the singing.

During the past two years by systematic effort our annual subscribers have been largely increased, numbering now over 800, and thus we are able to make our income equal our expenses.

The aggressive work of the Society during the past ten years has been carried on with very indifferent tools, and, as the volume of the work forced upon us has increased, they have become inadequate and ill adapted for the proper treatment of the work now facing us. One, and only one solution for these difficulties exists; that is the erection of a suitable Institute building to centralize and house our activities.

After several years of careful thought and study the ideal situation for this building was found at the corner of South Street and Coenties Slip, where a plot 91 feet on South Street and 112 feet on Coenties Slip has gradually been put together. The contract for the first lot was signed in December, 1905, and for the last lot in January, 1910, the plot being secured from five different owners, the total cost of the land being $242,500, of which $62,500 came from a fund left by the late Robert B. Minturn. On this plot we propose to erect a model Institute, which will comprise a free shipping bureau, abundant facilities for the storing of seamen's baggage, commodious reading, writing and recreation rooms for sailors, with separate similar rooms for apprentices and petty officers, a supply shop where the men can be outfitted for their voyage, provision for the receipt, custody and transmission of the seamen's wages, game rooms supplied with billiard tables, and accommodations in the shape of separate sleeping cubicles for at least five hundred men, one floor being reserved specially for officers and apprentices. Such a building must be twelve stories high and will probably cost about $500,000. The building will also contain a chapel large enough to accommodate at least three hundred men, and a large hall where lectures and entertainments can be given.

No money will be wasted in its construction, but it must be fireproof. It will be built of brick and in general appearance will be like the Mills Hotels, except that it will have rooms for educational and institutional work which Mills Hotels lack.

A careful study of conditions on our water front convinces us that such a building can be readily filled, and if so, judging from the experience of those in charge of the Mills Hotels, it will be more than self-supporting.

From the top of this building will be displayed a distinctive light which will be visible to every ship entering and leaving this Port. It will be a sign of welcome to those coming in from their long and often tempestuous voyages, and will speak a last word of adieu to those who are sailing from our Port.

In Memoriam.

Death has taken from us one of our clerical Vice-Presidents, the Rev. W. R. Huntington, a devoted friend of the Society, who by his wise counsel and active participation in its management has shown his sincere interest in our work. The death of one of our lay Vice-Presidents, Mr. Benoni Lockwood, is keenly felt, for his cheering presence, so familiar for a very long time in the Floating Church and in our Committee and Board Meetings, and his genial, warm-hearted manner toward all who were in any way connected with the Institute, made him greatly beloved, and his usefulness was untiring. He is a lasting inspiration. We shall also miss the kindly aid and services of Mr. George R. Bonney, who was Corresponding Secretary during the greater part of his 18 years of service as one of the Managers of the Institute.

Our former Chaplain, Rev. Isaac Maguire, who, by reason of impaired health, was retired in 1902, after thirty years of devoted service in preaching out-of-doors and in the station at Coenties Slip, and in ministering to boatmen and bargemen and their wives and children, by whom he was beloved, passed away in July last.

A short time since our efficient Chaplain, the Rev. A. R. Mansfield, was offered the Chaplaincy of the Sailors' Snug Harbor, but at a considerable financial sacrifice he declined the appointment to continue his zealous labors with us.

We greatly regret that ill-health has compelled the resignation of one of our most active and valued lay Vice-Presidents, Mr. O. Egerton Schmidt, who has done so much to improve the condition of seamen and to promote the interest of our Society.

Legacies.

The Society has received a legacy of $5,000 from the estate of Mr. Winfield Tucker, and a legacy of $7,000 from the estate of Miss Mary R. King.

It has also been notified of a legacy of $25,000 from the late Henry Dexter and $2,000 from Mary Nevius Mayo.

A Statement for our last completed financial year.

Finances.

In 1909 we have expended $34.168.20.

We have received from donations and contributions in the same year, $33,123.80.

We have been compelled to draw from our trust funds, $1,044.39.

Respectfully submited,

Edmund L. Baylies,
Chairman of Executive Committee.

The Rev. Wm. C. Rodgers, D.D., presented the following report:

REPORT

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The College Year opened September 20. There are at present 62 students enrolled. This is a large increase over last year. The Freshmen Class numbers 20, so that very soon our graduating classes will be much larger than heretofore. We had many more applications for entrance than we could by any means accept.

The College has lost from the Faculty the Rev. W. G. W. Anthony, S. T. D., who has become Vicar of St. Augustine's Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York. We cannot overestimate the value of Dr. Anthony's services to St. Stephen's—his own college—which he served for 18 years, faithfully and bravely. Seymour Guy Martin, Ph.D., of University of Pennsylvania, and B. A. of St. Stephen's College, has been chosen by the Trustees in his place. Mr. Edward S. Hale, of Harvard and St. Stephen's, has been appointed Professor of History.

Last year was the 50th Anniversary of the founding of the College by Mr. and Mrs. John Bard. This was celebrated by a magnificent service in Trinity Church, New York, with a sermon by the Rector. In the evening a banquet was held at which considerably over 200 men were present. The Jubilee Endowment Fund was started and so far we have done fairly well. We are graudally nearing the $10,000 mark. This, however, I regret to say is not yet all in hard cash, but in five-year pledges—pledges which it is interesting to know have been made very largely by the students themselves and by the Alumni of the College. A good proportion of pledges have, however, alerady been paid in.

The usual services have been conducted in the College Chapel, and the report of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials solemnized is included in the Parochial report of St. John's Church, Barrytown.

The work that is being done in St. Stephen's College by students and faculty is thoroughly good. I may be, of course, a prejudiced witness, but I think that there are others who are willing to testify that this is true, and I have the Bishop's permission to read to you his words in a letter to me dated August 18, 1910. He says: "You are, of course, perfectly free to quote me as endorsing St. Stephen's College as a Church College which is not only preparing young men for the Ministry, but also giving to all its students a thorough classical education second to none which is given in any other college."

St. Stephen's is not going to stand for any superficial or slovenly methods, nor is it to be regarded as a short and easy cut into the Ministry. The courses are arranged with a view to sending out educated, cultured, strong men, whether as graduates or special course men.

I do not wish, nor do I intend, to abuse this opportunity by turning a report into an appeal for money. St. Stephen's is perfectly ready to be judged on its merits. We feel that in quietness and confidence will be our strength. All we can do is wait patiently, though it will be under great stress and strain, until the Church discovers the real usefulness, not to say the necessity, of this Institution. It is almost the only College in the country that deliberately sets out to give an academic training to young men who are destined for the service of God in the Ministry of His Church. At the present moment one-twentieth of the Communicants of the Episcopal Church are in charge of clergymen who have received their academic training at St. Stephen's College, and 8 per cent. of the clergy have been trained there. With completed buildings and a sufficiently large endowment we could take 120 men and so do a still greater service for the Diocese and the Church at large.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM C. RODGERS,
President.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMISSION.

In submitting our eleventh Annual Report, we desire to call attention first to our work of the Supply Department.

I. The Supply Department: During the year there have been careful revisions of some of our Manuals, and extensive reprintings of others. New books comprise Hero Stories of the Old Testament with its Teacher's Manual; a new Kindergarten Book by Miss Arnold is in press. A new course of lessons on "The Church at Work Socially," by Clinton R. Woodruff, is about ready for the press. This book bears on social service along many lines, and should prove a most helpful and stimulating course of study for our advanced classes.

The sale of our Manuals from the Supply Department alone has been 121,000 copies this last year. Our Lecture Sets on the Old and New Testaments, and on the Mission Fields of the Church, have had a large demand. Thus far over 2,730,000 copies of our Lesson Manuals have been sold, and they are used either in whole or in part perhaps more widely than any other system. An extensive exhibit of material and appointments for school-work was given out last summer at the Vacation School in Richfield Springs, and at the General Convention in Cincinnati.

NEW YORK. September 30, 1910.

A DIOCESAN SURVEY.

We ask your attention to some statistics bearing on the Sunday Schools of this Diocese. In 1900 there were reported 71,862 Communicants, and a Sunday School membership of 44,584, or 62 per cent. of the number of Communicants. In 1901 this proportion rose to 63 per cent. From this date the Sunday School membership falls steadily, till in 1909 it is only 43 per cent., or 38,054, while the Communicants number 87,248. These statistics are, we believe, not altogether reliable. There are fluctuations from year to year that can only be explained by inadequate returns and inaccurate tabulation in our Parish and School records. None the less, it is apparent that so large a falling off presents a serious problem. While we have in this period added 12,000 to our Communicant list, we have lost 6,000 out of our schools. If our schools held to-day the same relative membership as ten years ago, they would number 55,000, or a gain of 10,000, against a loss of 6,000, or 17,000 more than our present number. In some parishes the shifting of population will account for this decline. But this cannot be true throughout the Diocese as a whole. The causes must be found in the defections of our methods in many instances, and, at least, a feebler grasp upon conditions as they exist. If we are asking the reasons for a more earnest and enlightened prosecution of our Sunday-school work as a Diocese, we find it in these facts. No Church can grow normally unless it feeds itself from the young life within and about it in the community. The care of this young life is the charge specifically laid upon our Sunday Schools.

The Recent Inquiry.

During the last summer a list of 33 questions was sent out to the Diocese by a Committee of the Sunday School Association. Out of 255 parishes and mission stations, all but nine, or 246, have Sunday Schools; out of this 246 we received replies from 100. Many of these replies are most painstaking in their preparation. Many, of course, are less adequate. But fortunately, these 100 come from many sections of the Diocese, and are thus fairly representative. We desire to state briefly the results of this inquiry.

1. Lay Superintendents.—The number of Lay Superintendents reported is 35, showing a considerable increase. This indicates a growing recognition of the claims of the Sunday School on the part of the laity, and a happily increasing appreciation of the layman on the part of the clergy. It is an encouraging fact.

2. School Membership.—The constituency of the school indicates in the teaching staff only 18 per cent. of male teachers. In the total enrollment of scholars 46 per cent. are boys, 54 per cent. girls. Above the age of 14 years, practically the same proportion holds. But for boys over 14 years we have not more than one male teacher to every ten classes. This proportion is far too small. It represents a loss of fellowship and personal influence which, if lost at that period, can never afterward be made good.

3. Lesson Systems.—Out of the 100 schools, 48 use the Lessons of the Sunday School Commission, 22 the Joint Diocesan, 8 report the Blakesley, the remaining 22 use a variety of lessons, in a few cases prepared by the Rector, or some form of catechetical instruction. The old half-hour lesson period is apparently giving place to a longer lesson hour, an indication of growing interest Reviews and examinations, with careful oversight of the pupil's progress, are found in many schools. In the matter of teacher-training it is impossible to report any notable and wide-spread advance. Twenty-five schools report Teachers' Libraries, and in some others the Rector's Library is open to the use of teachers, and, so far, this is gratifying. But this side of the school work is in need of improvement, and we believe that where it is earnestly and patiently sought to raise the standard of teaching, the school develops an increased vitality and interest, educationally, and its spiritual value is correspondingly deepened.

The study of Missions, and the correlative subject, Social Service, is recognized, but particularly in connection with the seasons of Advent and Lent. Some schools carry on a more regular instruction, and the missionary lessons published in the Spirit of Missions are evidently attracting well-desired and growing attention. The increasing Lenten offerings show this in a practical way.

4. Methods of Stimulating Interest.—The use of methods averages 72 per cent. In connection with this, to foster regularity, to look up absentees, to create interest and enthusiasm, we find comparatively little use of fixed systems of rewards. There is, on the other hand, considerable attention given to matters of school and class organizations, clubs, leagues and fraternities. This is a healthy method. It is directly contributory to the spirit of social and Christian service. If used wisely, and under the personal touch of those who understand it, it can be made of utmost value in developing that sense of human brotherhood and responsibility which is demanded at the present time, if religion is to keep its ascendency as a force in human life.

The school that has enough enthusiasm and vigor to develop its own life, to guard and increase its own membership, to create a standard of mutual duty and service, is certainly moulding character in no small degree. For this reason ideals of service and mutual upbuilding are immeasurably finer and more lasting than those of personal reward and the decorative value of crowns and crosses. Indeed, rewards and decorations are of value and not positively detrimental, only as they go together with the solid qualities of faith, loyalty and service.

5. School Support.—It has been almost a tradition that Sunday Schools should support themselves, and the Sunday-school penny may be responsible for the Church-penny later on, and so help also to divorce the Sunday School and Church in the mind of the child. It is bad policy, to say the least, to do any thing that in the early years of a child leaves false or one-sided impressions. We note a number of Churches support their school by an appropriation from the parish treasury. This in some cases sets the school free to give its entire offerings to Missionary and other objects. In many cases the school is self-supporting, in others partly so.

This opens the question as to what is the best method. We suggest that the true relation of the child is to the Church as a whole and not primarily to the school. This being so, his offerings should be to the Parish first, and then to such other objects as may come properly to him as a member of the Church. The child then forms the habit of looking at the Church as his own. Its local support, its interest in outside objects, its responsibility for the world-wide movement of religion—these become part of his traditional conception of the Church. He finds no break between the childhood offering and that of manhood. "The Field is the world." The parochial merges into the larger social and world unit. All his offerings pass through the one treasury of the Parish, and the emphasis is vitally changed.

6. The Child and Spiritual Life.—One other matter is brought out in these inquiries, the child in his spiritual life. It is the aim of the Sunday School to create a body of strong, Christian-hearted men and women, who stand for faith in God and the service of the world. But it is also the object of the Sunday School to create a body of men and women to whom the worship of God and the spiritual service of Christ to the world are real things. It is not conceivable that the Sunday School should graduate a non-worshipping, non-praying class. The contrary is vitally true.

This inquiry brings out the fact that too largely the children are absent from our services of worship. They do not come with their elders. It is true that there are often monthly services, special services in connection with the great festivals, and sometimes weekly services during Lent. But it is apparent that no adequate provision is made for the child in acts of worship and devotion. We do not here propose to discuss this question. But we do desire to call to your attention that portion of the Report of the Joint Commission on Sunday School Institution to the General Convention relating to this matter and calling our attention to the importance of securing the attendance of our children at services of the Holy Communion. Such services are held and are of the highest educational and spiritual value. Reverent ceremony, appropriate hymns, the solemn beauty and symbolism of the Holy Eucharist, will, if wisely and earnestly used, impress as no other offices of worship can, the truths of religion, and develop the habit and love of worship.

Here again we meet the same principle cited before in another connection, that we cannot train up a great and powerful body of Christian worshippers unless we begin with them as children. What we may think about questions of ritual and service and vestment, is quite beside the mark, as compared with the larger question as to what we shall actually do. But that there must be a far more thorough and prayerful facing of this side of our work for childhood, this inquiry leaves no doubt. What the childhood of this age needs far more than it needs amusement and many other ingenious contrivances in education, is the influence of a deeply religious fellowship and worship.

7. The General Board of Religious Education—The General Convention at its recent session created a General Board of Religious Education, corresponding in form and functions to our Board of Missions. The far-reaching importance of this action is evident. It calls for responsive action in every Diocese and Missionary Department, and we shall offer a resolution asking for the appointment of an appropriate committee to represent this Diocese and to further the purposes of that General Board.

This review of our Diocesan Sunday Schools is less complete than we should have desired. We admit its disappointing features, but we are none the less convinced that earnest and intelligent work will go far towards correcting these. It is an absolute necessity to the life of the Church that our work for the young be braced up and made more worthy. And we urge with the utmost sincerity that this Diocese take steps to meet this demand. It is borne in upon your Commission with growing conviction from year to year that something must be done far more comprehensive and thorough than we have ever attempted. We cannot face the facts which in such an inquiry become so evident without realizing the seriousness of the whole question, and we appeal to the Diocese for an honest consideration of it—such action as shall make possible the better meeting of our needs.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in accordance with the action of the General Convention constituting a Board of Religious Education and calling for the formation of Departmental Organizations corresponding to the Missionary Departments of the Church, auxiliary to said Board of Religious Education, the Sunday School Commission be authorized to elect five delegates to represent the Diocese in the Sunday School Convention of the Second Department.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is Two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

The receipts from investments during the year will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, and no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending November, 1911.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund again respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the deficiency existing in the Residence Fund, and ask such action by the Convention as will enable the Trustees to pay this debt. The Trustees call the attention of the Convention to the further fact that the securities belonging to the "Residence Fund" have now all been sold and the proceeds have been used in the repairs and alterations of the Residence. The annual charges, by way of taxes, croton water and the like (say $1500) must therefore be raised by an assessment of at least one-half of one per cent. in addition to the assessment needed for the salary of the Bishop. The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are, hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the Diocese at such a rate, as may be necessary, upon the salaries paid to the Clergy, for the purposes of raising moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, including the salary of the Bishop Suffragan, in lieu of the collection provided for by Canon.

The statement of the investment and income of the funds in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

NEW YORK, November 3, 1910.

Mr. Miller moved the resolution contained in the report, which was adopted.

The. Rev. Dr. A. G. Cummins presented the following report:

REPORT

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

"Social Service means the wise and comprehensive application to modern society in all its phases, economic, social and religious, of the great fundamental principles of Christian Brotherhood."—Bishop Greer.

THE BOSHART BILL.

In August two members of the Commission appeared before the Legislature at Albany, filed their protests against and helped to defeat the Boshart Cannery Bill. This bill was aimed at the protection of women and child operatives in New York State.

SPECIAL OBSERVANCE OF SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 4th.

The Commission gratefully acknowledges the co-operation of the great majority of the clergy in its appeal for a special observance of the Sunday preceding Labor Day. In two hundred of the two hundred and fifty Church of the Diocese sermons were preached on the suggested subject of "The One Day of Rest in Seven." The Bishop issued a special collect for that service.

RESOLUTIONS ON CHILD LABOR.

The following resolutions were offered by the Bishop of New York, Honorary President of the Commission, at the General Convention:

"Whereas, The employment of children in factories, mines, and shops reduces wages to the child's standard, disintegrates the family, deprives the child of his natural rights to a period of training and time for play, and depreciates the human stock; and

"Whereas, We recognize the responsiblity of the Church for our industrial as well as our spiritual standard: therefore we call upon employers and parents to use all influence toward better legislation and better enforcement of the laws for the protection of children, to the end that exploitation of the labor of children shall become impossible in this Christian country; and

"Whereas, We believe a special injustice against the child exists in the night work of boys under 18, in the transmission of messages, and especially in the distribution of our daily morning papers, between the hours of 10 P. M. and 6 A. M., therefore we call upon all Christian legislators to make laws forbidding this work of children under 18, between the hours of 10 P. M. and 6 A. M., in the various communities of our nation."

These resolutions were adopted.

CONGESTED POPULATION, CHILDREN'S COURTS, PLAY-GROUNDS.

Members of the Commission Interested:

The Hon. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler has been appointed a member of the State Commission to investigate the Congested Conditions of Population in the cities of New York.

Mr. Arthur A. Michell is doing a splendid work in the Children's and other Courts in Richmond Borough.

The Rev. Robert P. Kreitler is making a special study of Play-Grounds as a civic asset and working for their extension.

THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, SPECIAL ADDRESSES.

The Commission is planning a series of six addresses to be delivered to the students of the Seminary on the subject,

"THE MINISTRY AND SOCIAL SERVICE."

The opening address will be made by Mr. R. Fulton Cutting upon the general subject. Appointed dates, November 22, December 20, January 17, February 14, March 21, April 25.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY COMMUNION.

The Commission will be in charge of a series of social service meetings at the Church of the Holy Communion during the Week of Prayer, November 27th to December 4th.

BAND OF VOLUNTEER SPEAKERS, CLERICAL AND LAY.

The Commission will gladly assist parishes having Men's Clubs and Women's Guilds to obtain speakers on Social Service Topics for their organizations. Already a small group of splendid speakers are pledged for this purpose. A card of particulars will be issued.

THE "QUESTIONNAIRE."

The Commission is anxious to collect data concerning parochial organizations, social service efforts, parish publications, etc. The Rev. Robert P. Kreitler has consented to undertake this valuable piece of work. We ask the generous co-operation of the Clergy.

A member of the Commission has defrayed all of its expenses.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Wiliam Jay presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the year 1909-1910 they have held three meetings:

They have made appropriations from the income of invested funds to six clergymen of the Diocese in active service whose incomes derived from the parishes they serve are below $500 per annum. They have in addition granted stipends to four other clergymen of the Diocese whose incomes from their cures are below the standard of decent support. And it gives especial pleasure to the members of the Board to report to the Convention that this year, as for five years past, they have been enabled to act favorably upon every application received by them for assistance from the income of the funds at their disposal. This is not due to an increase of income, for the Parochial Fund has received no increase of principle for several years past, but to the loyalty of the Clergy, who only make applications for assistance as the exigencies of their several parishes and missionary stations force upon them.

A special committee appointed by the Board of Trustees made this year a distribution of the Sustentation Fund in accordance with the terms of the resolution adopted by the Convention of 1908-1909. In that Conventional year the Trustees received for distribution $6,560 from the Parishes of the Diocese and made appropriations from the Fund to twenty of the Clergy in the Diocese.

For the present Conventional year they have received from contributions to October first, $6,479 and made appropriations to twenty eight Clergymen. Eight Parishes, additional to those which met the terms of the resolution of the Convention of 1908-1909 were entitled to the assistance of the Committee and the funds at their disposal enabled them to appropriate two-thirds of the amount to which the respective beneficiaries were entitled.

The Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund would, therefore, most respectfully request the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy to urgently press upon the Parishes their obligation to the Diocese, by making the annual offering for this purpose. It is a well-known fact that many Rectors and Missionaries in the Diocese are living on incomes below the standard, not determined upon by the Diocesan Convention, but below the standard of decent comfort. The Committee has made as equally a distribution of the Fund as was within their power under the increased number of beneficiaries entitled to the appropriation.

The Trustees have heard with sincere regret of the recent death of George R. Schieffelin, Esq., who was for many years President of the Board, and whose devotion to its work is remembered with gratitude.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is herewith appended. The terms of office of Mr. William Jay and Mr. Blair S. Williams expired on October first.

There is a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, by reason of the resignation of Mr. William Pierson Hamilton, who served the Board as Trustee and Treasurer for a period extending over ten years. The Board desires to give expression to their sincere appreciation of his long and faithful service and interest in the conservation of the funds entrusted to their care and oversight.

The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to cast a ballot for the retiring Trustees to succeed themselves and also a ballot for John A. Dix, to fill the expired term of Mr. William Pierson Hamilton.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY,
President.

WALTER THOMPSON,
Secretary.

Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D.	Mr. John W. Wood.

Dr. Clendenin withdrew his name for re-election to the Standing Committee.

The Rev. M. H. Gates, D.D., presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSES.

Owing to delays in the completion of the new school building, the New York Training School for Deaconesses is passing its first term, through the generous courtesy of Grace Parish, at Grace House, New Canaan, Conn.

Thirty-one students have been enrolled, but only twenty-two have been received in residence during the first term; other students will be received at the opening of the second term. The present body of students represent the following dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions: Central New York, Central Pennsylvania, Chicago, Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Newark, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Olympia, Southern Virginia, Washington, Nova Scotia and Tokyo.

The school has met with a severe loss in the death of the Rev. Charles Harris Hayes, Ph.D., the valued instructor of Christian Evidences.

Appointments made during the past year are: The Rev. Milo Hudson Gates, D.D., to the post of Warden, and the Rev. W. Lloyd Bevan, Ph.D., and the Rev. Raymond C. Knox to the Faculty.

Graduates and special students of the School have accepted calls during the past year in the dioceses of Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York and in the Missionary Jurisdictions of Asheville and Oklahoma. One has entered the work founded by an earlier graduate of the School in the Latin Quarter of Paris.

Among the students now in training several are fitting themselves for parish positions, while there are others preparing for Japan, two for the Far West and two for mountain work in Virginia.

The absorbing interest this year will be the new house soon to be occupied by the school. The situation, beautiful and healthful in itself, will also prove convenient for the better development of the practical side of the training, because of the opportunities offered by Teacher's College and the philanthropic institutions which cluster about the Cathedral and University. This department of the training will be carefully developed in the future.

Bishop Courtney offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Canons:

A Suffragan Bishop shall have a seat and vote in the Diocesan Convention; and in the absence of the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor shall preside at the session of the Convention.

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D. D., presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE ON INADEQUATE SALARIES OF THE CLERGY.

The Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy begs leave respectfully to report as follows:

During the year 1910 there has been received $6,479.87. To that must be added interest on bank deposits to October 1 of $50.96, making a total of $6,530.83, as compared with $6,563.00 contributed in 1909, showing a falling off of $32.17.

To pay a sum sufficient to insure each unmarried clergyman a salary of $1,200.00, and to each married clergyman a salary of $1,500,00, according to the resolution of the Convention of 1908, would have required $9,434.00. As the amount received did not permit of that, it was thought best by the Committee of the Sustentation Fund to distribute on the basis of two-thirds of the amount applied for.

Your Committee, after two years' experience, finds itself greatly embarrassed. In the first place, of the one hundred and sixty-four parishes in union with this Convention one hundred and eight contributed to this fund in 1909. At least nineteen of these may be supposed unable to contribute anything, inasmuch as their rectors are recipients of this fund. Still there were thirty-seven parishes who contributed nothing, some of them among the largest and most influential in the Diocese. In 1910, but sixty-nine contributed, leaving seventy-six delinquents. It is beyond the province of your Committee to do more than report the fact.

Secondly: Your Committee is convinced that there is considerable confusion, owing to the fact that there are three funds being used for the aid of the Clergy; namely, the Sustentation, the Clerical Aid and the Parochial Fund.

Your Committee is inclined to think that could the Sustentation, the Clerical Aid and the Parochial Funds be placed in the hands of one Treasurer, who would also be Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Missions, there would be a valuable simplification of the work.

Your Committee hopes for an early re-organization of the Diocesan work, by which it will be possible to consolidate and so simplify and make more effective the various efforts which are now being made for the same purpose.

Resolved, That on the first Sunday in January, 1911, every parish in union with this Convention shall take a collection to supplement the inadequate salaries of the clergy of this Diocese.

Resolved, That a Committee of five, two clergymen and three laymen, be appointed to consider the Diocesan financial situation and to report to the next Convention what, if anything, should be done to simplify and make more effective the work of this Diocese.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HUGH BIRCKHEAD.
LEIGHTON PARKS.
C. A. HOFFMAN,

November, 1910.

Dr. Parks moved the appended resolutions, which were adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. Leighton Parks. D.D.

The Rev. Hugh Birckhead, D.D.	Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr.
Mr. William Jay.	Mr. J. Howard Wainwright.

The Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D. D., for the Committee on the Increase of Episcopal Fund, reported progress, and moved that the Committee of six be increased to ten, which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as additional members of the Committee:

The Rev. S. DeL. Townsend, D.D.	Mr. J. V. V. Olcott.
Mr. August Belmont.	Mr. Anson W. Hard.
Mr. George S. Bowdoin.	Mr. R. Fulton Cutting.

The Rev. R. J. Walker presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention, recognizing the grave and deplorable condition now existing in this city by reason of the controversy between various express companies and their employees, and deeming the demands of the men just and fair, we do express our sympathy for them and commend their action in desiring to submit their claims to arbitration; and we call upon the express companies to agree to such arbitration: and, be it

Resolved, further, that the Committee on Social Service use their good offices in this behalf.

Mr. William E. Rogers moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was not adopted.

Mr. R. Fulton Cutting moved that the resolution be referred to the Social Service Commission with instructions to study the question and report.

The Rev. E. S. Middleton offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That this Convention, while sympathizing with the questions now at issue between the expressmen and their employees, would recommend the reference of the whole matter to a council for arbitration.

Which was adopted.

The elections being in order, the Chair declared a recess while the ballots were being cast.

After the Convention reassembled, adjournment was taken till Thursday, at ten o'cock.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, November 10th, 1910.

Morning Prayer was said in the Cathedral Crypt, by the Rev. George F. Nelson, D.D., Archdeacon of New York, and the Rev. Ernest Voorhis, Ph.D., Canon of the Cathedral.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the Chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, Ph.D., presented the following Report:

REPORT

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

November, 1910.

The Committee begs leave to report that the attendance at the Seminary, so far this year, is 126, as compared with a total enrollment of 120 for the whole of last year.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees the Rev. Arthur Whipple Jenks was elected "St. Mark's Church in the Bowerie Professor of Ecclesiastical History." The work of the Chair of Evidences, made vacant by the death of the Rev. Dr. Hayes, is being cared for this year by the Rev. Professor Dickinson Miller of Columbia University, and the Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.

Action by the General Convention on the proposed change in the article of the Constitution relating to the make-up of the Board of Trustees, has been postponed by reason of the non-concurrence of the House of Bishops in the proposals of the Joint Committee.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following nominations for Trustees of the General Theological Seminary to represent the Diocese of New York for the ensuing year:

The Rev. William M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.	Mr. James J. Goodwin.
The Rev. William T. Manning, D.D.	Mr. John A. Beall.
The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.	Mr. Charles F. Hoffman.
The Rev. William C. Rodgers, D.D.	Mr. Hermann H. Camman.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Lawrence T. Cole,
Charles F. Canedy,
Winthrop Sargent,
Francis Lynde Stetson,
Charles F. Hoffman, Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Cole nominated the Existing Trustees, and moved that the Secretary be empowered to cast one ballot for them, which was adopted.

The Chair declared that they were duly elected.

Bishop Courtney presented the Report of the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons beg respectfully to report:

The Committee have considered a proposal to enact a new canon relative to the office of Suffragan Bishop. They are unable to recommend the adoption of the canon in the form proposed. The Canon passed by the late General Convention provides, in substance, that a Suffragan Bishop shall be elected in the manner provided by the Canons of the Diocese for the election of a Bishop In this Diocese the only canonical provision for the election of a Bishop is contained in Article VII. of the Constitution, in these terms: "In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately." While in the opinion of the Committee a constitution is a canon, and provision made by constitution is provision made by canon, yet to obviate occasion for criticism they deem it wise to embody in a canon, eo nomine, provision for the election of a Bishop, and in so doing to adhere to the language of the Constitution. Accordingly, they recommend that the Convention adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That Canon IX. be, and hereby is amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

SEC. 3. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

Which was adopted.

The Chair declared the order of the day to be the election of a Bishop Suffragan.

The Chair appointed the following Inspectors of the Election:

Clerical Vote: REV. M. K. BAILEY. MR. JOHN P. FAUSE.
MR. W. F. REYNOLDS.

Lay Vote: REV. G. W. HARRIS. MR. WILLIAM FOULKE.

The Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, D.D., Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond, and Archdeacon of Richmond, was nominated by the Rev. Dr. Manning and seconded by the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor and the Rev. Dr. Nelson.

The Rev. William Hawkes Pott, Ph.D., Rector of Zion Church, Wappinger's Falls, was nominated by the Rev. F. F. German, and seconded by the Rev. W. N. Gilbert.

The Rev. Dr. Pott withdrew his name.

The Bishop bade the Convention to Prayer.

Dr. Manning asked unanimous consent to substitute the following motion for the one of yesterday, relating to the same subject, which was given.

Resolved, That a Committee of three Presbyters and three Laymen be appointed by the Bishop to take action in regard to the matter of Church Extension in this Diocese along the lines suggested by the Bishop in his Convention Address, and that the Bishop shall be Chairman of this Committee, which shall have power to add to its numbers.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

THE BISHOP OF THE DIOCESE, ex-officio.

The Rev. Charles S. Burch, D.D.	Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson.
The Rev. William T. Manning, D.D.	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
The Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D.	Mr. George Zabriskie.

Bishop Courtney reported for the Committee on Canons as follows:

The Committee on Canons beg leave to report that they have considered the Canons proposed by the Committee on Finances, referred to them by the Convention yesterday, and propose their adoption, as follows:

PROPOSED CANON.

COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN FINANCES.

Section I.

(1) At every Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint four laymen and two clergymen, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Diocese, ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Diocesan Finances. Vacancies in said Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessment of money for any purpose shall be referred to this Committee, which shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds and co-operation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention. It shall keep a record of its meetings, and shall report to the Annual Convention.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese for the total of the amounts fixed by the Convention for the following objects, respectively:

(a) The Episcopal Fund.
(b) The Diocesan Fund.
(c) Diocesan Missions.

(5) The Treasurer, also, under such direction, shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

Section II.

(1) The assessment for the objects named in Section I. (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation, as shown by its Annual Report.

For the purposes of determining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for the objects following, viz.:

Salaries and wages.

Lighting, heating, insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings used for church purposes, supplies, and the support of services.

The notification to each Parish, Misssion or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions and Congregations according to the amount of the current expenses of each of them, and shall make assessments based on such classification.

(2) The annual report of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be presented on the first day of the Annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer.

(3) The Treasurer shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rate of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congrgation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of February which notice shall invite said Parish, Mossion or Congregation to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause, if any, why said assessment should be modified or corrected.

(4) The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of April, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

The amounts of such assessments shall be charged by the Treasurer of the Diocese against the Parishes, Missions or Congregations severally and respectively, and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of April, and the other on the first day of October next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same. It shall be the further duty of the Treasurer to report to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all the Parishes, Missions or Congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against such Parishes, Missions or Congregations for Diocesan purposes.

(5) The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of the current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of Parishes, Missions or Congregations shall be adopted as in the case of the assessment for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for the modifications, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for the Diocesan assessments shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments, except that they shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and not to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SECTION III.

There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment, consisting of the Committee and the five Archdeacons ex-officio.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive and to consider any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of April in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and notify any Parish, Mission or Congregation if any change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustments as it shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any Parish, Mission or Congregation, for Domestic and Foreign Missions upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that it may make in any apportionment made by him.

SECTION IV.

The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese, and by any other Treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

Whenever the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall deem advisable it may confer with the Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and with any other Trustees or Boards of the Convention, and with the Treasurers of any organizations under the jurisdiction of the convention, for the purpose of harmonizing and simplifying the financial affairs and methods of the Convention and of the Diocese.

Your Committee offer also the following proposed substitute for Canon VI.:

PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE FOR CANON VI.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SECTION I.

At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified. The Treasurer shall perform such duties as from time to time shall be prescribed by Canon, and shall act as financial agent for the Diocese for the receipt and disbursement of moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, except contributions for Domestic and Foreign Missions. He shall safely keep an account of all moneys or funds that shall come into his hands and shall deposit the same in such banks or places of deposit as the Committee on Diocesan Finances may authorize. He shall keep accurate books of account, which shall be open to inspection of the Committee on Diocesan Finances and give such information upon the finances of the Diocese and the conduct of his office as may be required by the Committee. He shall submit annually to the Convention a report of the receipts ad disbursements of the Diocese. He shall give the bond or security that from time to time may be required by the Committee on Diocesan Finances, and the expenses therefore shall be paid out of the fund for Diocesan Expenses.

SECTION II.

In case of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment shall be made by the Convention.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Bishop Courtney moved the adoption of the proposed Canon. It was adopted, section by section, and then adopted as a whole. Bishop Courtney then moved the adoption of the proposed substitute for Canon VI., and it was adopted.

On motion of Dr. Manning the Convention took a recess for the election of a Bishop Suffragan.

After the recess the Committee on Parochial Obligations reported, and asked to be discharged. The Committee was discharged.

The Committee on the Wider Distribution of Official Positions reported and was discharged.

The Committee on Diocesan Finance was discharged.

Bishop Courtney moved that the new Canon on Diocesan Finance be numbered Canon XV., and subsequent Canons renumbered accordingly.

Which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney offered the following amendments to the Constitution, which were adopted preliminary to final action by the next Convention, and referred to the Committee on Canons.

"First. The election of a Suffragan Bishop, to which the Convention has determined to proceed, gives rise to a question of the status and authority of the Suffragan Bishop in the Convention. To give him place, and to prescribe his authority, involve amendments to the Constitution. The Committee therefore recommend that the Convention adopt the following resolutions:

1. "Resolved, That the first sentence of Article III. of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"The Convention shall consist of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor (if there be one), and the Suffragan Bishops (if there be one or more), of the Diocese, and of Clerical and Lay Members.

2. "Resolved, That the second sentence of Article VII. of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"In voting, each clerical member shall have one vote, the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishops, having the right to vote with the clergy.

3. "Resolved, That the last sentence of Article VII. of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately.

4. "Resolved, That Article VIII. of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

"Whenever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there ge one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate."

"Second, The election of a Suffragan Bishop will also suggest the amendment of some of the Rules of Order. The Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That Rule of Order I. be amended so as to read as follows:

I. "Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which the Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, or if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, the next in order of consecration, but if there be no Suffragan Bishop present and able to act, the senior Presbyter present shall take the chair."

2. "Resolved, That Rule of Order V., Section 2, be amended so as to read as follows:

2. "In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, and (if there be one) of the Bishop Coadjutor, and (if there be one or more) of the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, the Convention shall elect a President."

"Third, Resolved, That Rule of Order XXXII. be amended so as to read as follows:

"Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate."

The Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Rules of Order be referred to the Committee on Despatch of Business for revision and report at the next Annual Convention.

The Inspectors of Election made the following Report:

The Rev. Robert V. K. Harris.	Mr. Harry C. Barker.

The Rev. E. C. Saunders offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the President of the Convention be requested to appoint a Committee to consider the insufficiency of the Widow's and Orphan's Fund to meet the claims upon it, and to devise means by which it may be enabled fully to discharge its functions of providing for the Widows and Orphans of the clergy of this diocese who have gone to their rest.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. Ernest C. Saunders.

Mr. R. W. B. Elliott. Mr. Robert L. Harrison.

The Rev. Dr. Grosvenor offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention learns with great pleasure and satisfaction of the purpose to provide for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, a Chapel in memory of the late Rev. Dr. Wm. R. Huntington. Mindful of his devoted service and his noble example to the whole community, we heartily commend this memorial in the Cathedral for whose completion he earnestly labored, to the generous gifts of all the people of this Diocese and City.

The Chair declared that the Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, D.D., having received a concurrent majority of both orders, was duly elected Bishop Suffragan in the Diocese of New York.

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin moved that the election be made unanimous, which was, by a rising vote, adopted.

Mr. Stetson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop Suffragan be and hereby the same is fixed at the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars per annum.

Which was adopted.

Mr. J. P. Morgan moved that a Committee be appointed to wait upon Dr. Burch, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning and Mr. Morgan were appointed as the Committee. The Committee escorted the Rev. Dr. Burch to the platform, and he announced his acceptance of the election, if it was confirmed by the Church.

The Convention united in singing the Doxology, "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow."

On motion, the Secretary of Convention was instructed to prepare a canonical testimonial to be signed by the members of this Convention.

The Secretary then read the testimonial for the consecration of the Bishop Suffragan, and it was signed by a constitutional majority of the Clergy and Lay Delegates composing the Convention.*

The Chair announced a recess for one hour.

The Convention reassembled at 2:30 o'clock.

The Secretary presented the following report:

The Trustees announce with regret that Mr. Charles F. Hoffman, on account of his many duties, has been compelled to resign as a Trustee. Mr. Elihu Chauncey has been elected a Trustee in his place, and has accepted. The Trustees respectfully ask that the Convention elect Mr. Chauncey a Trustee pursuant to the Canon.

The Trustees announce with sorrow the death of Mr. Augustus F. Holly, a member of the Board since 1903. The vacancy thus created is unfilled.

During the year the Trustees have been compelled to transfer $2,500 from the principal of the Widows' and Children's Fund to make good the allowances of the beneficiaries of that fund for the years 1909 and 1910, as shown in the foregoing report.

Since September 21, 1910, the date of this report, the Trustees have transferred $1,000 from the principal of the Widows' and Children's Fund to the income account of the Clergy Fund, thus completely adjusting the accounts between the two funds. This adjustment has been made possible by the legacy of $10,000 bequeathed by the will of Isabella Cooper, which was credited entirely to the principal account of the Widows' and Children's Fund, in accordance with the amendment to the canon made by the last Convention.

Furthermore, since September 21, 1910, the Trustees have transferred $1,500 from the principal account of the Widows' and Children's Fund to the income account of that fund to meet the allowances to the beneficiaries payable on the first of October, 1910.

The Trustees request that their action be in all respects approved.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID H. GREER,
ROBERT B. DOBSON,
ROBERT W. B. ELLIOTT,
H. HOBART KEELER, Trustees.

Mr. Elihu Chauncey was nominated as a Trustee to succeed himself, and Mr. John Noble Stearns was nominated as a Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Augustus F. Holly, and they were duly elected.

Mr. Robert L. Harrison offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund be authorized and requested to take proceedings in the Supreme Court of the State of New York under the statutes in such case made and provided to obtain an order of the Court so that any accumulation of income or current income derived from the funds in hands of the Trustees of said fund may be used for current needs of widows and children of deceased clergymen so long as said income is not required for the needs of the aged and infirm clergy.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Carter, Secretary of the New York Bible Society addressed the Convention.

The Rev. Pascal Harrower offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in view of the great work of the New York Bible Society, now completing its one hundred and first year, it is the sense of this Convention that in all the Churches of this Diocese the Second Sunday in Advent, December 9, be observed especially this year as Bible Sunday.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. G. H. Toop offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the motion of reference of the proposed changes in Canon XVIII to the Committee on Canons be withdrawn, and in its stead be it

Resolved, That a special committee of five be appointed by the Chair to consider the whole matter covered by said proposals, working in connection with the Bishop of the Diocese and the Committee on Canons. The report of the result of their deliberations shall be printed and distributed to the clerical and lay delegates of the Convention either before or at the meeting of the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

Rev. Charles S. Burch, D.D.,	Rev. George A. Green,
Rev. G. Herbert Toop,	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris,
Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.,	Mr. Irving Grinnell.

Bishop Courtney presented the following from the Committee on Canons:

I. The committee have considered the amendments to certain canons proposed by the Committee on Wider Distribution of Official Positions. They feel constrained to point out that the changes which it is proposed to make effective by these amendments cannot become operative during the present Convention, for the reason that some, at least, of the offices to which they relate have already been filled under the authority of existing canons for one year only, and it is constitutionally impossible for Committees or Boards elected by the Convention for one year by any process of classification to retain some of their members in office for the longer period of two, three, four or five years. The Committee have therefore proposed certain modifications of the proposed amendments. They recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Canon XII., Section 1, be amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 1. The Standing Committee shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Standing Committee who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Committee shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Committee into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. Vacancies occurring by death or otherwise shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the clerical and lay members of the Committee until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies no member of the Committee shall be eligible for membership for one year after the expiration of his term of office.

2. Resolved, That Canon XI be amended so as to read as follows:

There shall be eight clerical and eight lay deputies from this Diocese to the Federate Council, who shall be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the Convention of 1911 the deputies who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, two clergymen and two laymen in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the deputies shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention two clerical and two lay deputies shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the deputies such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of deputies appointed to fill vacancies no deputy shall be eligible to the office of deputy until one year after the expiration of his term of office.

4. Resolved, That Rule of Order V, Section 5, be amended so as to read as follows:

5. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two clergymen and two laymen, which committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two clergymen and two laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three laymen;

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, four clergymen and four laymen;

(e) On Canons, four clergymen and four laymen;

(f) On Miscellaneous Business, four clergymen and four laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one clergyman and one layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many clergymen and so many laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their clerical and lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

II. Inasmuch as in the opinion of the Committee the resolutions with regard to wider distribution of official positions which were adopted by this Convention on the 9th of November cannot become operative until the Convention of 1911, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following qualifying resolution:

Resolved, That the resolution adopted by this Convention on the 9th of November with regard to the wider distribution of official positions shall not become operative until the stated Convention of 1911, and it shall be taken to apply to the positions therein referred to at that time.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., moved that the Convention now sit as a Board of Missions, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Van Kleeck moved that the reading of the Reports of the Archdeacons and Treasurers of the Archdeaconries be dispensed with, which was adopted.

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

The Archdeacon of Orange begs to report that the work has been successfully and faithfully prosecuted during the past year..

One of the notes of progress was the laying of the corner stone of St. Andrew's Church, New Paltz, on December 1, by Bishop Greer. A representative audience assembled, and a goodly number of the clergy. The weather was very cold, but the whole service, including an admirable address by the Diocesan, was performed in the open air. The church building is now practically completed, save certain portions of the interior, and services have been held therein during the past Summer and Autumn, but the Archdeacon regrets to report the necessity of a mortgage of $2,000 on the property, whose present value is three times that amount. Yet the importance of having our Church represented at this seat of one of the State Normal schools is conceded by all. Pupils of all demoninations are of course gathered at this educational centre, but the fact that full twenty pupils and several teachers engaged in the institution are members of the Episcopal Church shows why we are there with this substantial building of most attractive appearance, and a resident missionary, without the necessity of further comment. The Archdeaconry had hoped for more help outside of its own limits in completing this venture of faith; but the mortgage shows the sad disappointment. Yet we are not discouraged. Nearly every parish and mission within our own borders has aided in the building, and we confidently trust that in the near future more aid may come. The number of village people interested is constantly increasing, and your missionary has established a Sunday School since the last Diocesan Convention.

On September 7 the Archdeacon presided at the opening of the "Henry Barker Memorial Parish House" of All Saints' Church, Rosendale, Ulster County. A commodious house was purchased at a moderate cost, largely from a legacy left by the Rev. Henry Barker, and altered and adapted for the purpose in view by contributions from the congregation. It will be a great help to the activities of this Mission Parish, and is a beautiful reminder of a former rector's love for his people, and of their reciprocal affection for him, and appreciation of his long pastorate among them.

All of the Missions and Missionary Parishes are being well maintained and kept up to a good standard of efficiency. A faithful, devoted and intelligent body of men minister to them.

There has been but one change in the "personnel" of the Missionary Staff of Clergy in the Archdeaconry—the Rev. Thomas McClintock resigned his charge of Rosendale and adjacent parts on the 1st of October last, after something over a year and a half of service. His successor has not yet been appointed.

A list of Missionaries and stations is herewith appended, and also Treasurer's report.

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF WESTCHESTER.

The Archdeacon of Westchester would report that during the year we have been able to continue our work, to take some interest in the devoted service of the Reverend Mr. Hammarschold among the Swedes within our borders and to begin at least two new missions in the Archdeaconry.

We would recall with sadness the death of the Reverend John Buckmaster, who for many years was identified with this Archdeaconry and a long time Rector of St. John's, Tuckahoe, Westchester County. Mr. Buckmaster was a man of sterling qualities, full of zeal in his ministry. He was interested always in the weal of the Church. Whatever body he was associated with, whether Convention, Archdeaconry or voluntary societies, he was always present at meetings and prompt in the discharge of any duty assigned to him.

We fear that the Board of Diocesan Missions and the Convention do not realize the splendid opportunity offered for more aggressive work in the Archdeaconry of Westchester. Of course New York, with the unprecedented growth and crowding of the Boroughs of the Bronx and Richmond filling up with rapid strides meet the same conditions. The call for sympathy and support is urgent. To give you one illustration, and that in my own parish, White Plains has doubled in population in seven or eight years and the souls of our own Church fealty come from the city parishes. This creates a valid plea, come over and help us, and yet another ground: New York in the years gone by has deprived Westchester and Putnam Counties of all sources of water supply. And in giving you this means of quenching your thirst it were but fair that you should willingly yield to us the wherewithal to supply the spiritual meat, drink and shelter to those whom you send.

We cannot forget, but fully appreciate the generosity of the New York Churches, but bespeak the continuance of it and the increase of it in our present urgent needs and under added burdens.

The Archdeaconry this year has contributed to the support of twenty-two mission churches and sixteen rectors or missionaries. Of these stations thirteen are in Westchester County, three in Putnam County, and six in Rockland County. If the members of the Convention will read the reports of the missionaries when published in the Journal they will be impressed by the good, self sacrificing and effective work they are doing. The Bishop of the Diocese and our Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry have given under Section 6, Canon 14, approval of tentative work, first, that of a mission under St. John's Wilmot and working in the City of New Rochelle, and second, for a mission for colored people in Mount Vernon. The latter is the first movement in the Archdeaconry to give our colored church people church privileges. The Reverend Dr. Hiram Van Kirk is Priest in charge of the mission in New Rochelle, and a recent graduate of the General Theological Seminary; the Reverend Newton Peart, Deacon, is in charge of the new work in Mount Vernon.

For many years Zion Church Rectors at Dobbs Ferry have ministered at Zion Chapel, Hastings-on-the-Hudson. The present Rector, Rev. R. W. Berkley, feeling that Hastings should have a resident clergyman, called the Rev. Walter Archbold as assistant, with full duty at the Chapel. The result has far exceeded any hope indulged by the Rector or Vicar, Mr. Archbold, gives in every report of this work, in growth, progress, attendance at services, in offerings, that is most hopeful and encouraging. We note this in our report because the Archdeaconry has had its share in making this work possible.

From the Treasurer's report it will be seen that we have discharged our obligations to the work and at our October meeting had a balance for this quarter. We would call your attention to our Reserve Fund of about $1,100, which enables the Treasurer to meet promptly stipends when due, should the payment of apportionments be tardy.

This is a great relief to our faithful workers and a source of comfort to the Treasurer. The fund was created by voluntary contributions from our clergy and parishes over and above that which is raised by apportionment.

We append as the Canon directs a list of missions and Missionaries of the Archdeaconry.

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

The Archdeacon of Dutchess, in behalf of the Archdeaconry, respectfully reports as follows: He has not been able, on account of ill health to make as many visitations to the various missions this year as formerly, and in October sent his resignation to the Bishop of the Diocese, who accepted it. No steps have as yet been taken by the Archdeaconry to nominate a successor for the office.

The Rev. E. C. Saunders, of Rhinebeck, was appointed Vicar to the Archdeacon until his successor is chosen.

The Rev. Thomas Burrows was transferred from Pine Plains to Hopewell Junction to succeed the Rev. Mr. Grueber, deceased, thus necessitating the use of Lay Readers at Pine Plains and Lithgow, which is vacant by the retirement of the Rev. Mr. Gilbert. Services have been maintained every Sunday, however, in these places, students of St. Stephen's College being secured to read service and a sermon until priests are found for the situations.

One most encouraging feature of our work is the consecration of St. James' Church, Dover Plains, which took place on the sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, September 11, 1910. The church was built some years ago at a cost of $3,500, and the last $1,000 remaining unpaid has been this year received by the untiring efforts of the people of the place.

The Bishop of Porto Rico acted for the Bishop of the Diocese in consecrating the building.

The same self-denying labor characterizes the work of the Rev. R. R. Upjohn at Pleasant Valley, and also the work at the West Pawling Mission, under the care of Mr. A. C. Beerdeck, who has also regularly assisted at Dover Plains.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

At the annual meeting of this Archdeaconry, in December of last year, the former Trustees were re-elected with the exception of the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor, who asked to be excused from further service on account of the pressure of other duties, but he has not ceased to be among the foremost of the friends who aid us in our work. The Rev. Dr. Gates, of Trinity Parish, was chosen to fill the vacancy on the Board, and the former Secretary and Treasurer were re-elected.

In these days no one in Manhattan needs to be told that the borough above the Harlem River is rapidly growing. Some indication of that growth comes to us from the neighborhood of St. Stephen's Church, Woodlawn, which is the most northern of the Missions of our Archdeaconry. During the past two years eighty-two small dwellings of wood or brick and twenty brick buildings, of three stories each, have been built within six hundred feet of the church. Eighty families have moved into the neighborhood since August the first of this year. The church edifice is fortunately a spacious one on a large corner lot. A rectory is much needed. It will cost about $5,000. Of this sum $841.44 have been raised through the efforts of the Rev. Percival McIntyre, the minister in charge, and $1,000 are due from a legacy.

The Rev. Arthur Ketchum, at St. George's Church, Williamsbridge, is more fortunate, and occupies the rectory adjoining the church. During the past year the chancel has been decorated, and a metal ceiling has been constructed in the large Sunday School room in the basement. The equipment for efficient service in this promising part of the field is daily giving proof of its value.

The rented chapel of the Holy Spirit is small, but it has the advantage of a parish house nearby which is also rented. Of the 205 scholars of the Sunday School more than half occupy the chapel and the others are accommodated in the parish house. The Rev. Mr. Bray reports that the offering at the last anniversary service on Whitsun-day amounted to $350.

At the Chapel of the Atonement Mr. Falconer, to whom the early progress of the work was largely due, is again in immediate charge as Lay Reader, and the Rev. James A. Skinner continues to officiate at the Communion Services.

Since the Rev. Duncan H. Browne severed his relation with St. Martha's Chapel to accept the rectorship of Christ Church, New Brighton, it has been under the immediate oversight of the Rev. Roscoe C. Hatch, of the Bronx Church House, together with the Rev. Messrs. Harriman and Edwards, of St. Ann's Parish, Morrisania, who have continued the admirable missionary activities which have made St. Martha's, under Mr. Browne's Ministry, one of the model spiritual homes in the Bronx.

Emmanuel Mission, of which an Assistant Minister of Grace Church was formerly in charge, is now administered by the Rev. Robert E. Marshall, of Bronx Church House, together with the Rector of St. Mary's Parish, Mott Haven, and its nearness to St. Mary's was one of the causes which led to this arrangement. It still thrives in a rented room.

St. David's Chapel, where our colored brethren worship, has added another year of fruitfulness to its admirable record under the earnest and faithful Ministry of the Rev. Edward G. Clifton. The large, well lighted and well ventilated crypt is still used by the congregation, Sunday School and various clubs, as the building fund is not yet large enough for the desired superstructure.

We have a tentative and promising Mission in Wakefield called the Good Shepherd, under the care of Mr. McCallion, Lay Reader. It occupies a building formerly used as a barn in 235th street, east of White Plains Road. It has already raised $671.88 toward a building fund.

The growing usefulness of all these Missions has been due not only to religious services and Sunday Schools, but also to Men's Clubs, Women's Guilds, Boys' and Girls' Clubs, Branches of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Girls' Friendly Society and other organizations. It is noteworthy that all of them pay their own current expenses with the exception of the salaries of Missionaries. In addition to the clergymen whose names have been mentioned, the Rev. Henry Anstice, D.D., has been appointed a General Missionary of the Archdeaconry. We have a choice building site consisting of two adjoining lots, bought for us by the Bishop of the Diocese, at the corner of Tremont road and Buhre avenue, Westchester, near the proposed Triborough subway station and the Buhre avenue station. These improved transportation facilities will speedily increase the population of the neighborhood, and we shall soon need a chapel there.

Of our 150 candidates confirmed during the past year forty-eight were Italians, prepared by the Rev. Carmelo Di Sano, and presented at St. Ambrose Italian Mission. The work of this Mission in "Little Italy" is a reminder of the need of similar work in similar colonies. Trinity Parish, St. Bartholomew's Parish, Grace Parish, Calvary Parish and the City Mission Society have been conspicuous leaders in carrying the Gospel to immigrants of alien speech in their own tongue. It is gratifying also to see signs of growing interest in the urgent problem of ministering to such brethren when they are as sheep having no shepherd, and we hail the new Italian Mission at the Church of the Holy Communion and the new Italian Mission at St. Augustine's Chapel.

During the summer months 314 beneficiaries, mostly women and children, and many of them from the homes of immigrants, were sent into the country to breathe fresh air for a week or two, and other outings were provided for 1,287 excursionists.

Of the four clergymen now in residence at the Bronx Church House the new Vicar, the Rev. Kenneth A. Bray, continues in charge of the Chapel of the Holy Spirit, and the others are on duty at St. Martha's Chapel, St. Ann's Church, St. Mary's Church and the Church of the Advocate. About 1,400 men, boys and girls are connected with the clubs at this great centre of missionary work which the zealous forethought of our beloved Diocesan has set up in the Bronx. Each club has its own reading room, bath and gymnasium, and entertainments of one kind and another are given in the auditorium throughout the year. On the last Sunday of each month from November to May, inclusive, a United Service is held in the auditorium, and the choir and congregation represent many of the neighboring churches and chapels. We recommend to such of the clergy and laity of Manhattan as have not yet visited this Church House, to go there and see for themselves what it is doing. Adjoining it is St. Agatha's Home for Deaconesses, where six Deaconesses are in residence, rendering valuable service in the parishes of St. James', Fordham, St. Mary's, Mott Haven, St. Ann's, Morrisania, and St. Simeon's, Melrose, and also at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit.

The walls of St. Clement's Church in Third Street, having been found, last spring, to be unsafe, the congregation since then has availed itself of the hospitality of the Diocesan House where religious services and other parochial activities are temporarily maintained by the Rector.

We have not had the benefit of any share of offerings in the City and Diocese for Diocesan Missions during the past year, but we have thankfully received contributions sufficient to meet expenses, though not sufficient for any larger forward movement. We have also gratefully received two large Bibles from Calvary Parish, one large Bible from a family, and one hundred articles of clothing, etc., from the New York Branch of the Needlework Guild.

Of the five former Missions of this Archdeaconry that have become incorporated parishes, St. Margaret's, the Advocate and St. Alban's, have church edifices. The Church of the Holy Nativity, Bedford Park, has a Parish House in which the congregation worships, and a rectory, but is not yet able to build a church. St. Simeon's Parish, which has a rectory and a Church crypt, is also waiting for funds for the completion of its Church edifice.

We ask for money for the salaries of Missionaries, for the purchase of Chapel sites and for new buildings, but we heartily commend to the generous sympathy of Church people in New York the needs of these two parishes, which have made so noble a record of progress since the days, not long past, when they began their existence in little rented rooms.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,
Archdeacon of New York.

REPORT

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF RICHMOND.

This report must begin with an expression of gratitude over the fact that the Archdeaconry of Richmond has not only been able during the year ending November 1, 1910, to pay off all of the indebtedness outstanding at the close of the preceeding year, but it has been enabled to extend its missionary work somewhat and give more aid to assisted parishes than in any previous year of the Archdeaconry's history. This result has been made possible, first, by the fact that through the energy and zeal of the treasurer of Diocesan Missions, Mr. Henry Lewis Morris, we have received the full amount apportioned to us, and, secondly, by the fact that through special effort we have secured the raising of a larger amount of contributions for Archdeaconry work from our own parishes and missions, though a portion of this increase from assisted parishes and missions does not show in our treasurer's statement, owing to the fact that some of the contributions do not pass through his hands, but are paid directly to the missioners and assisted rectors.

The Italian Mission at Mariner's Harbor was reopened on Christmas Day, and has been continued since with measurably encouraging results, although large numbers of the former Italian residents of that section have moved away because of the shutting down of many of the local industries. A new Italian Mission has also been opened at Port Richmond, in the midst of a large Italian population, and under the direction of the Rev. D. A. Rocca, is already meeting with pronounced success, ministering to a steadily increasing number of Italians.

Trinity Parish, New Dorp, which lost its minister-in-charge, the Rev. David Bowen, by resignation last spring, has been placed in charge of the Rev. Robert H. Herron, who has recently come to us from the Presbyterian Communion. The work here has taken on a new aspect under Mr. Herron's wise and energetic leadership; and, while at present the Archdeaconry treasury is contributing to its support, we confidently expect that the parish will very soon again become entirely self-supporting.

St. Stephen's Parish, Tottenville, has generously given its Rector, Rev. Guy A. Jamieson, a year's vacation because of failing health. The supplying of this assisted parish during the year has devolved upon the Archdeaconry which sends two clergymen regularly to St. Stephens for the maintenance of all the services and the keeping up of a vigorous pastoral work. Under this arrangement the parish is not only holding its own, but showing a satisfactory growth.

All Saints' Parish, Mariner's Harbor, although in a district which has suffered more than any other on Staten Island from industrial depression with its consequent loss of a considerable number of residents, is under the zealous care of the Rev. William W. Mix, maintaining a healthful condition; and while very largely supported by the Archdeaconry treasury now, will undoubtedly recover its former status of financial independence with the return of industrial activity.

St. Simon's Chapel, Concord, has just lost its minister-in-charge, the Rev. William G. Thompson, who has resigned to take up work at St. Thomas' Chapel, Manhattan. Mr. Thompson's loss is much regretted, but it is hoped that very soon an effective worker will be secured for this important and growing field. Church, rectory and parish house are in good condition and entirely out of debt. This work has been almost wholly supported by the Archdeaconry the past year.

The Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville, is making satisfactory progress under the immediate charge of a Seminarian, Mr. Samuel H. Wood, with the assistance of the Archdeacon. This Mission, with church building, parish house and rectory free from indebtedness, with all debts paid and with a steadily increasing tendency towards independence financially, will undoubtedly be in a position to support a resident clergyman in the near future.

The Archdeacon, assisted by members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, continues to maintain a Sunday School and stated services at the Mill Road Mission, New Dorp Beach, where there is a well-appointed chapel and a small endowment fund sufficient for all present needs.

Services continue to be maintained regularly by members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, at the Marine Hospital, and under the direction of the Archdeaconry's Secretary, Mr. A. A. Michell, at the Actor's Home.

Semi-monthly celebrations of the Holy Communion are continued at the Mariner's Family Asylum, by the Minister-in-charge of St. Simon's Chapel, Concord.

Arrangements have been made by which services will be maintained at Linoleumville every Sunday afternoon, and it is hoped that the coming year will find an organized Mission at this important, but at present somewhat inaccessible point.

The Archdeacon and other clergy continue to co-operate with the City Mission Society, as far as possible, in ministrations at the City Farm Colony.

The Archdeacon desires to acknowledge gratefully the everready and frequently-proffered services of lay readers, H. G. de Meli, Berthold Lienhardt, E. J. Bleezarde, Henry R. Stewart, Archibald McComb and William N. Freeman.

Appended is submitted the financial report of the Treasurer.

Resolved, That the contributions to be required according to Canon XVI. of the Diocese from every Congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund, for the Convention year 1910-1911 be one-half of one per cent. on the amount of its current expenses.

And the appended resolution was adopted:

The Secretary offered the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary be empowered to spend such an amount of the funds of the Diocese, with the consent and approval of the Bishop, as may be necessary to complete the file of the Journals of the Diocese.

Which was adopted:

The Rev. Dr. Burch presented his resignation as Deputy to the Missionary Council, which was accepted.

The Rev. F. F. German and Mr. Adrian A. Buck were nominated as deputies to the Missionary Council.

On motion, the Secretary was empowered to cast one ballot, for the nominees.

The ballot was cast and the Chair announced that the Rev. F. F. German and Mr. Adrian A. Buck were duly elected Deputies to the Mission Council.

The Rev. Mr. Harrower moved that the Chair appoint a Committee on arrangements for Convention, which was adopted.

The Rev. W. T. Crocker presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal and the Bishop's address be printed for distribution.

It was moved that after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions, the Convention adjourn sine die, which was adopted.

The minutes were read and approved.

The devotions were conducted by the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Benediction was pronounced by the Bishop of Eastern Oregon and the Convention adjourned sine die.

DAVID H. GREER,
Bishop.

Attest:

ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Since our last meeting in Diocesan Council the General Convention of the Church has met, and it may not be amiss if, instead of reciting at length or even in summary its more or less important legislative proceedings, of which you have already either heard or read, I should try to express as it appeared to me the spirit which pervaded and prompted those proceedings and gave significance to them.

It was on the whole a notable Convention and fairly representative of the Church at large, in that it was composed of men of different views and different schools of thought within the lawful bounds and limits of the Church, and who, therefore, gave expression as was to be expected, to different shades of opinion. And yet, with this striking and significant feature—that in spite of the different views advanced, or rather in and through them, there seemed to be this pervading and underlying conviction—that now more than ever did the world need and was it ready to welcome and receive that Christian Gospel message which the Christian Church has been authorized to give. It is true, indeed, that every age has needed that Gospel message, because it is a message which human nature needs, and hence it has found in every age some personal response and has received in every age some personal acceptance, as it surely will in this age. But something more than that was the thought or feeling or rather the conviction which seemed to pervade and underlie all that was said and done in that recent Council and Convention of the Church. Not merely that in this present age, as in all the ages before it, some individuals here and there, whether few or many, feeling in themselves the need of some transcendent life would welcome and receive the Christian Gospel message, but that the age itself, the whole present age, was beginning to feel the need of it, or the need at least of something of more vitalizing value than its own inherent and energizing force, and which it first must have in order to work successfully its present problems out.

It has been trying hitherto, and is trying still, to work those problems out along material lines and with material terms. They may not be and are not in their ultimate aim strictly material problems, but social, civic, moral. But the terms employed to work them with are nevertheless material and which it is hoped will prove to be the germinal terms of life, a happier, a better, a more desirable life, more rational and wholesome. And so they are; and the Church must not neglect them. It must, on the contrary, in all its planning to promote human growth and betterment, emphasize and use them. And the Church is doing it, not only in its furtherance of social welfare schemes and social service commissions, Diocesan and National, but also in its various parochial equipments, its guilds and clubs and parish houses and other institutions, agencies and missions.

All this is good, important and essential and must not be neglected. For the greater part of my own ministerial life I have stood for it and worked for it and done what I could to encourage and promote it. And I stand for it still, because I believe it to be serviceable and valuable, not only in itself but in helping to give to the Christian Church its hold upon the people and thus through its active sympathy with them to show and prove its friendly disposition towards them. And yet while encouraging this and trying to promote it, as the Church should, it would be a mistake to dwell too much upon it and to make this to the people today its chief and principal message, because it is not what today, so the Convention seemed to think, the people chiefly need. Material things they need of course; they always will need them, but other things they need, and at the present time chiefly other things, which are not material, but beyond them and above them, and from which none of us can, however closely related to material dependencies, at any time escape. For, as an English writer of penetration puts it, we are constantly, even the most practical of us, seeing what is invisible and hearing what is inaudible and permitting them to send us on our way. Seducing appetites, turbulent passions and ignoble ease never gain our undivided ear. While we bend to them there are pleading voices which distract us, and which, if they do not save us, follow us with an expostulating shame.

These are the things, these unmaterial things, which this material age is dimly and dumbly stumbling towards and, half unconsciously to itself, trying to reach and find. It has been trying to build its material towers high and it has built them high, but, like another long ago, they seem to be towering towards not heaven but confusion. Or using another and more authoritative simile,—the present age is beginning to find and feel the old saying true, that it simply cannot live, neither can it prosper, it is not possible, by means of bread alone, or whatsoever is expressed or symbolized by bread, whether little or much. It has been working upon the experiment not merely of making material things, metals and stones and other things convertible into gold, but convertible into life, and the experiment does not seem to be turning out well. The startling statement made not many years ago to the British Association that matter contains the promise and potency of life is coming to be questioned not only as a scientific datum, but also as a practical and experiential rule. Even the man on the street, and the successful man on the street, and he perhaps more than the unsuccessful, is touched and tinged more or less with a depressing disillusionment concerning the sufficiency of that material creed which holds its promise to his ear and breaks it to his hope. And so with the age at large. Its crass material creed—how good at first it was! Ah! yes, how good it was! What splendid promise was in it! What a great and blessed evangel of peace and contentment if not of happiness it was going to be to the people when, by a logical process, it should be worked out and universally applied! Has it been worked out? Not quite perhaps, or fully; and yet we are already beginning to hear in this material age the same old question which in spite of "much goods" long ago was asked, "What is lacking yet?" And what is? The very thing which so earnestly is sought. Life, life is lacking. And that is what precisely the Christian Gospel message promises and gives.

For what is the Gospel message? Let us be clear on this point for there seems to be in many minds much confusion about it. It is not, primarily, a message concerning the teaching of Jesus Christ, His parables and precepts, His sermon on the mount.

That is not chiefly what the Gospel message is. That is not indeed a Gospel message at all, a message of good news. It is, on the contrary, when taken by itself, a message of despair. For who of us can reach, fully and completely, that high moral code? We can aspire to it and try to reach it; and we should try. But something else first must come to urge us on to reach it. Much of that moral teaching, too, is found in other religions, in the Jewish and the Confucian as well as in some of the old philosophic systems, the Greek, the Roman, the Indian. But the Christian religion has something distinctive in it which no other has and gives something to us which no other gives. It gives to us life, proceeding from a surrender to and fellowship with a life; from fellowship with Christ; not merely with His teaching delivered long ago, not merely with His example imaged long ago, but with Christ Himself, the risen and the living Christ, living here and now, in a fellowship as real, as intimate and close, yea, closer than that which His disciples had when He was on the earth.

That is what distinctively the Christian religion is. That is what it gives us and what no other gives. That is what Saint Paul, to signalize it, to differentiate it, to make it stand boldly out, calls "My Gospel," the Gospel which he had been commissioned to teach and preach, and which, as it was by him and others preached, gave to the world new life and changed it, its manners and its morals, and put a new enthusiasm into the world's heart. And so it does now, giving to men the power of a new and needed life from a surrender to and fellowship with a life, the life of the Living Christ, which, as they have it in them, urges them on to follow Christ, to serve and obey Him, His high ideal teaching, His Sermon on the Mount, and everything else He taught, to show Him forth and live Him, and thus to become, according to their measure, the present portrayal of Him.

That is the need, radical, deep, and felt, of the present age, and which the Christian Church, gathering up all its strength, gathering up all itself into one must chiefly try to meet. And here let me repeat, that I may not be misunderstood, what has been already said, that in emphasizing this I do not forget the other less spiritual but still important needs of the present time and age. No, I do not forget them; I recognize them fully, and hear what is so often their sad and bitter cry. I hear from toiling men today and toiling women and children the bitter cry for bread, and woe to the Church that does not heed that cry and does not try to relieve it. And yet, as from the very heart of this material age and in spite of its material absorptions and engrossments, I cannot fail to hear what the late Convention seemed to hear, another cry today; inarticulate, if you please, but still, though faint, a famished cry, for another kind of bread, the Living Bread that came down from above and that still comes from a personal fellowship with the Living Christ.

This is the bread which Christendom needs today which the world needs and is awakening to the need of. I was recently told by a friend the following incident. A Chinese student at one of our American universities was asked to tell to his assembled fellow students what he thought was the radical need of China, and he delivered himself, so it was reported to me, in substantially these words: I have reflected, he said, that what my country needs is a better industrial system, a better educational method, a better scientific training, and other similar things which you in the West possess. But these are not enough; these are on the surface. I have reflected that what my country needs is an enthusiasm, not for abstract qualities, verities and virtues,—we have these, we have had them for centuries; and besides, too, these are things which appeal more particularly to the more enlightened few. I have reflected and considered that what my country needs is an enthusiasm for a person and for a living person; and if it is to be a continuous enthusiasm, not waning or declining, but lasting on and on through the lives of individuals and through the lives of ages, it must be for a person continuously alive. I have reflected and considered that what my country needs is an enthusiasm for just such a person as your religion gives us.

Yes, China needs it, Christendom needs it, the whole world needs it, and is beginning to be conscious of the need; the power, the inspiration, the enthusiasm of a life, not temporal and material, for that, however bright the flame, does in time burn out and leave but dead and cold or smouldering furnace clinkers; but spiritual and eternal, an enthusiasm from and for the living Christ.

It was this conviction which seemed to pervade the late General Council and Convention of the Church, prompting and inspiring its various proceedings, and which, in spite of different views, freely and frankly uttered, gave to that Convention its vital and essential significance and meaning, and of the measures which it adopted. This was the significance of the new Missionary Districts which it created; of the new Missionary Canon which it framed; of the new Mission Hymnal which it authorized to reach all classes, the destitute and homeless and those who are forgotten of their fellow men; of its new General Board of Religious Education; of the new strong note of Unity which it struck and of its new and forward steps towards a world conference concerning Faith and Order; and of various other minor but not unimportant and unessential measures. All of them proceeding, as I at least tried to interpret and understand them, from one deep and strong and underlying conviction that the present age is needing and awakening to the need, to quicken and revive it and save it from itself, some new life-containing and life-imparting word, which is but the old Christian Gospel word concerning the Living Christ. And so the Church must gather up all its strength to give it, with united voice and effort to impart it, and knowing that it has it it must put forth and show the courage of its conviction and, therefore, must not be afraid new methods to adopt, new experiments to try, new ventures of faith to make. One of these is the venture in this American Church of a Suffragan Episcopate. Personally I am satisfied as the result of much reflection, that it is a venture expedient and wise. My reasons for this opinion you already know, and I need not now rehearse them, but will content myself with saying that after a very careful and very thorough study for the past seven years of our situation, I am strongly and fully convinced that a Suffragan Episcopate, with its free untrammelled movement, such as a Coadjutor Episcopate does not and cannot have, will be not simply a "confirming machine"—what a poor and meagre conception some persons seem to have of the Episcopal Office—but an Apostolic and missionary force for strengthening what is weak, reclaiming what is lost, for gathering in the people and shepherding the flock. The Church at large at least, after a very full and careful deliberation and guided, as I believe, by the spirit of God, has decided to make the venture, having as I also believe, not exclusively but to some considerable extent, this Diocese in mind; and I ask you now to make it. According to the Canon, which went into effect immediately upon its passage, I am permitted to ask for two Suffragan Bishops. I ask for one. That, for the present at least, is in my judgment enough. If at another time another should be needed, or something else should be needed for the better upbuilding of the Church in this Diocese, that need I am sure will be recognized and met. But now I ask for only one assisting Bishop. It is needless for me to say that he should be a man earnest, capable and of high character, the highest, and above all a man not seeking his own glory, but the glory of Jesus Christ and the advancement of his Church and kingdom in the world.

I ask you now to let me have such an Episcopal brother and co-worker in this Diocese. And let me not be misunderstood. I ask for this assistance not chiefly for my own sake—I make no ad misericordiam appeal—but chiefly for the sake of the Diocese and the greater efficiency of the work, for strengthening its stakes and lengthening its cords and developing its resources. And in order that it may not be too much of a tax upon the Church I here agree to relinquish one-third of my present salary.

In connection with this greater efficiency of the work, there is another matter which has been much upon my mind of late and to which I wish briefly, in conclusion, to refer.

There are parishes in this city and this Diocese which are bravely struggling against adverse conditions; some of them with debts originally contracted with the full approval of the constituted authorities. Others there are which by some timely outside aid would be liberated at once into a much larger usefulness in very fruitful fields. Has not the time come, is it not here and now, for the formation and the incorporation of a Church Extension Society, capable of receiving gifts and bequests, which, by a judicious application of them, would give to the Church a helpful forward movement all along the line and throughout the whole length and breadth of our diocesan field? This, in my judgment, is a very important matter, about which some immediate action should be taken if the Church in this Diocese is to avail itself of its opportunities, and instead of simply marking time and holding its own, to make progress in its work.

I would suggest therefore that a committee be appointed at this Convention with power to form such a society and to secure for it a charter. Such a society, composed of wise and capable men, with, if you please, the Bishop of the Diocese as ex-officio the President, would meet in a very effective way a great and pressing need and contribute to the growth and progress of the Church. I would suggest also in connection with it, an annual public meeting, either in the Cathedral, or if that should not be large enough, in Carnegie Hall, at which the claims of the society might be set forth and presented, and I beg, therefore, to commend this subject to your earnest attention.

And now I end as I began, and as the late Convention both began and ended, with a strong encouraging note. The task that lies before us, though arduous and great, is rich in hope and promise. The world today needs and is, I believe, ready to receive the Christian Gospel message, with its life-imparting word concerning the Living Christ. Let us then with hope and faith and courage give it, and for its greater sanction give ourselves to it.

"Say not the struggle nought availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain,
The enemy faltereth not nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain.
For while the tired waves vainly breaking
Seem here no further inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets, streaming Comes silent, flooding in, the main."

DAVID H. GREER.

APPENDIX B.

TESTIMONY FROM THE MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION IN ORDER TO THE CONSECRATION OF A SUFFRAGAN BISHOP.

We, whose names are hereunder written, fully sensible how important it is that the Sacred Order and Office of Bishop should not be unworthily conferred, and firmly persuaded that it is our duty to bear testimony on this solemn occasion without partiality or affection, do, in the presence of Almighty God, testify that the Reverend Charles Sumner Burch, D.D., is not, so far as we are informed, justly liable to evil report, either for error in religion or for viciousness of life, and that we know of no impediment on account of which he ought not to be ordained and consecrated to that Holy Office. We do, moreover, jointly and severally declare that we believe him to be of such sufficiency in good learning, of such soundness in the Faith, and of such virtuous and pure manners and Godly conversation, that he is apt and meet to exercise the Office of a Bishop to the honor of God and the edifying of His Church, and to be a wholesome example to the flock of Christ.

(Signed) Robert B. Kimber,

CERTIFICATE OF THE SECRETARY OF CONVENTION.

I, the Reverend Robert B. Kimber, Secretary of the one hundred and twenty-seventh annual stated Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York held on the tenth day of November, A. D., 1910, in the Synod Hall of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, in the Borough of Manhattan, in the City of New York, within the said Diocese of New York, do hereby certify upon the foreging Testimonial of the Reverend Charles Sumner Burch, D.D., elected to be Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New York, that the said Testimonial has been signed in open session by a constitutional majority of the said Convention.

In withness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this tenth day of November, A. D., 1910.

(Signed). Robert B. Kimber,
Secretary.

Amenia, St. Thomas'. [NO RECTOR and NO REPORT.]

Annandale, Holy Innocents' Church (Chapel of St. Stephen's College); the Rev. William C. Rodgers.

The ecclesiastical acts that have been performed in this Chapel in the way of baptisms, marriages, and funerals, are recorded in the report of St. John's Church, Barrytown.

Regular services have been conducted during the college year as follows: Morning and Evening Prayer daily. Celebrations of the Holy Communion every Sunday at 7:45 a. m. and on the first and third Sundays at 10:30 a. m. Also on all Thursdays and Holy Days at 7:15 a. m.

The Chapel of the Holy Innocents' is open all the year around and many families in the immediate neighborhood, and intimately associated with the college, attend. A small Sunday-school is conducted for the children of these people. A successful Woman's Auxiliary is maintained, which works for Missions, and while there is no parochial organization, the congregation sends its Missionary apportionment and more besides. The students of the college also contribute to Missions. The offertory at the Early Eucharist is used for that purpose.

Arden, St. John's Church; the Rev. James Holmes McGuinness, D.D., Vicar. R. D. A. Parrott, Chairman Board of Trustees. R. Whipple, Clerk. Willam Viner, Treasurer.

On Thanksgiving Day, 1909, an offering of over $35,000 was made, which cleared all the mortgage debt resting on the Church.

Holy Trinity Church was consecrated on January 1, 1910, by Bishop McVickar, our first Rector, acting as consecrator for Bishop Greer. Thus in twenty years a debt of over $210,000 has been paid. The Church enters on a new era of service for our crowded and changing neighborhood. Another curate has been added for institutional activity.

May 5th, 1910, Ascension Day, was the seventy-ninth anniversary of the consecration of St. Clement's Church. On Wednesday, May 4th, part of the parapet of the west side wall fell down, disclosing serious defects of construction. The architect and engineer called in, reported the building to the Building Department as in a dangerous condition. On Friday, May 13th, the building was adjudged unsafe by the Building Department and closed. On Sunday, May 15th, services were held in the Potter Memorial Chapel Diocesan House on Lafayette Street. Monday, May 16th, the Church was condemned to demolition.

Of the 830 scholars reported in the Sunday School, 650 are in the Parish School proper and 180 in the Sheltering Arms; 48 officers and teachers in Parish Sunday School and 14 in Sheltering Arms. The diminution of 50 in roll of communicants, and the reduction in families and baptised persons seems to be due, at least chiefly to large number of removals from Parish, the places of those removing being filled by people of a different class—not church people. A partial census shows a large increase of Roman Catholics and Jews, mostly of foreign origin, in the immediate neighborhood of this Church. The Canon regarding Letters Dimissory would seem from our experience to be generally disregarded. Of 108 persons coming into the Parish only 19 brought or could secure Letters Dimissory from former Parishes. Of 321 leaving the Parish 243 vanished without notice, presumably most of them sooner or later to appear in other Parishes without Letters Dimissory.

St. John's Parish, Pleasantville, N. Y., was incorporated on September 19, 1853, and admitted into union with this Convention of the Diocese that same year. The Church was consecrated on September 22, 1855. In 1894, there being no acting Vestry, the Rev. Stephen F. Holmes was appointed by the Bishop to the charge of the Parish and entered upon his duties August 1, 1894, a charge he has held ever since. On Tuesday in Easter Week last, March 29, 1910, the Vestry was revived by the election of two Church Wardens and eight Vestrymen, and on April 4 following the present incumbent was elected to the Rectorship. On November 12, 1909, the Parish received Canonical permission from the Bishop to change the present site of the Church for one more desirable, and preparations are now going on for the erection of a stone edifice on the new site.

During the past year a new organ has been installed in St. John's Church, new arrangement of Chancel and Choir with marble floors, steps and pulpit base, new choir stalls and Litany Desk, new heating and electric lighting, and re-decoration of the entire church building at a total cost approximating $40,000.

The organ is a memorial to Eva Smith Cochran, the gift of her daughters, Mrs. Thomas Ewing, Jr., and Mrs. Harry S. Bowen.

A memorial window is being placed in the north transept to Mrs. Cochran, the gift of friends in St. John's Church and elsewhere.

A silver and gold alms bason of unique design, has been presented as a memorial to Mrs. Mary Scrugham by her children.

Daily morning services have been instituted and the Church is opened daily from half past nine to five for prayer and meditation.

The Rev. Charles Everett Cartwright Oswald, lately of the staff of Trinity Chapel, New York, has become Assistant Minister, and William J. Kraft has succeeded Walter J. Bausmann as Choirmaster and Organist.

The death of Theodore Hannibal Silkman has removed one of the most devoted members of the Parish, and one of the most generous supporters of all its activities. He was a vestryman for seventeen years and will be greatly missed in the whole community. May he rest in peace.

APPENDIX E.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese not having parochial or missionary charge:

The Rev. Sturges Allen,

Superior O.H.C.

"During the past year my residence has been at Holy Cross, West Park, and my duties have been chiefly those which devolve upon me as Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross. One month was spent at St. Andrew's School, Sewanee, Tenn., in the early summer. A Retreat was conducted for the All Saints' Sisters of the Poor in Baltimore in April, and for the Sisters of St. Mary and All Saints' in the same city in October. During the past year Morning and Evening Prayer have been said daily and, with a few exceptions, the Holy Eucharist has been celebrated every day. Conferences and addresses have been given from time to time."

The Rev. Wilmer P. Bird.

"I beg to report to you that I have been abroad since July 1909. My absence has been caused by the continued illness of Mrs. Bird. It will be necessary for her to remain under a specialist's care for another year."

The Rev. Stanley Brown-Serman.

"I have been engaged in the prosecution of my studies as Fellow of the General Theological Seminary and have had charge of the Parish at Sea Girt, New Jersey, in the Diocese of New Jersey."

The Rev. W. Brown- Sherman.

"Respectfully reports duty during the past Convention year as Chaplain of the House of Mercy, Chaplain of the House of Rest, Inwood, and Priest in charge of Raquette Lake, N. Y."

The Rev. P. K. Cady, D.D.

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York that, during the last Convention year, owing to diminished strength, he has not exercised his priestly or pastoral functions in any public way."

The Rev. Henry A. Dows.

"Respectfully reports that during the Convention year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, New York City."

The Rev. Arthur Wentworth H. Eaton, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year, under license from the Bishop of Massachusetts, he has officiated, sometimes very regularly in the Diocese of Massachusetts, occasionally also, taking duty in the neighboring Dioceses. He has been at work continuously for three years on a History of Kings County, Nova Scotia, which is at last published."

The Rev. E. H. C. Goodwin.

"In making my annual Convention report, I can only say that during the present year, the eighty-third of my age, I have been able to take no active part in Divine Service."

The Rev. Randall C. Hall, D.D.

"During the past year I have assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, and have served as the Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter Institution there have been three funerals. For three months, in vacation, I conducted the services in the Chapel on Money Island, Stoney Creek, Connecticut.

The Rev. William White Hance.

"Without any settled charge during the past year, I have officiated where and as opportunity has been offered to me by my brethren."

The Rev. Gottfried Hammarskold.

"I beg leave to report that during the year ending October 1, 1910, I have conducted 191 services, taken part in 52, preached 166 sermons, delivered 49 addresses, administered Holy Communion 32 times, baptized 18 children, solemnized 11 marriages, officiated at 16 funerals, prepared 12 candidates for Confirmation, and attended to other duties connected with my office."

The Rev. Alonzo N. Henshaw.

"I beg leave to report that during the Convention year just ended, I have officiated from time to time, and have assisted regularly on Sundays at Trinity Church, Plattsburg, New York."

The Rev. William Huckel.

"Respectfully reports that owing to bronchial troubles, during the past Convention year, he has taken no part in the public services of the Church."

The Rev. Arthur P. Hunt.

"I beg leave to report that during the year I have been busy with my work as Professor of Ethics in the General Theological Seminary, and have officiated and preached both within and outside of the Diocese as occasion has offered. I regret that my illness last year made impossible my report at that time."

The Rev. Ralph Wood Kenyon, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the year last past, he has performed his duties as Associate to the Rector of St. Luke's Church, Brooklyn; conducted special and regular services in various places and celebrated both Sacraments; preached the sermon at an Ordination to the Priesthood in the Diocese of Newark; assisted at the anniversary service of the Society of Colonial Wars; made the memorial prayer at the commemorative exercises of said Society; preached the special sermon at the commemorative service of the Bronx Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution; and otherwise exercised the functions and privileges of the Priesthood as opportunity has offered and occasion demanded."

The Rev. William G. W. Lewis.

"During the past year my health has been fairly good, saving a severe setback last Christmas season and for some two months succeeding. I am now in fairly good health.

"I have preached eight times, assisted and officiated in the Holy Communion ten times, baptized one child, and have counselled and comforted sick persons several times. I am very thankful that I have been able to do so much for the Master and for some of His disciples."

The Rev. T. Gardiner Littell, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has been engaged in work, as Assistant Minister in St. John's Parish, Yonkers, and in St. John's Riverside Hospital, Yonkers. The report of his acts is included in that of the Rector of St. John's Church."

The Rev. Edmund S. Middleton.

"Reports that he has continued to perform his duties as Master in Trinity School and also recently, those of Examining Chaplain. As opportunity has offered, he has exercised his ministry in various parishes."

The Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D.

Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Heavenly Rest,

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has resided in Sharon, Connecticut, and has had charge of the Church in that village. He has also preached several times in New York City."

The Rev. G. L. Nicholas, M.D.

"By way of an annual report I may say that I have been blessed with continued health and strength and daily activity in the Holy Ministry of the Catholic Church."

The Rev. J. Newton Perkins.

"Respectfully reports that during the past Convention year he has been regularly engaged in promoting the work of the American Church Building Fund Commission, in its office at the Church Missions House."

"As occasion has offered he has officiated in vacant parishes in Long Island and elsewhere. In May he spent a fortnight in the Canal Zone and assisted Archdeacon Bryan in missionary work. There and elsewhere he has baptized 8 infants, married 3 couples, and officiated at 3 funerals."

The Rev. D. Brainerd Ray.

"Since my last report I have rendered the following services: baptisms 2; funerals 5. I have administered the Holy Communion 47 times, have assisted 13 times, have preached 126 sermons, and have assisted in services nearly every Sunday. This record covers three years."

The Rev. Edwin B. Rice.

"Begs to report that during the past year he has been constantly employed with his duties at the Church Missions House in the City of New York."

The Rev. Wilford L. Robbins, D.D.

"In accordance with the canonical requirements, I hereby beg leave to report that during the past year I have been occupied with my duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and in preaching at various schools and colleges and in parochial Churches, as opportunity offered."

The Rev. William J. Seabury, D.D.

Professor of Ecclesiastical Polity and Law in the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports that he has during the past year discharged the duties of his Professorship in the Seminary, and has officiated in the services of the Ministry as opportunity offered; having celebrated the Holy Eucharist 25 times, said Morning and Evening Prayer 35 times, preached 4 times, and rendered occasional service 5 times."

The Rev. J. J. Rowan Spong.

"I beg herewith to transmit to you my annual report. During the year ending October 31, 1910, I celebrated the Holy Communion 4 times, and assisted once. The condition of my health, arising from heart trouble, rendered it inadvisable for me to officiate more frequently."

The Rev. J. Frederick Talcott.

"During the past year I have carried on my mission work as heretofore and have officiated at various places in this Diocese and elsewhere as occasion offered. At regular intervals I have taken part in the services of St. George's Church, Rumson, N. J."

The Rev. Walter Thompson.

"I hand you herewith my canonical report for the Convention year. My services have been freely given, whereever and whenever I have been able to be of service, and I am always more than glad to be of use for any duty in the Church.

"I have officiated in the services of the Church 25 times, 1 marriage, 3 funerals, 12 celebrations of the Holy Communion, and preached 16 times."

The Rev. William H. Vibbert, S.T.D.

Vicar Emeritus of Trinity Chapel,

"Respectfully reports that he officiated regularly at Trinity Chapel during the months of January, February, March and April, and during the Convention year has baptized 9 children and 2 adults, prepared and presented for confirmation 48 candidates, married 5 couples, and attended 23 funerals; all of which official acts are included in the report of Trinity Chapel."

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION..... 364

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

As Adopted October 11, 1796; and Amended October 17, 1827; October 2, 1834; October 4, 1839; September 29, 1843; September 26, 1850; September 28, 1860; September 28, 1882; September 26, 1889; September 14, 1902; September 28, 1905; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834; and amended October 4, 1839; October 1, 1841; September 30, 1842; September 29, 1843; September 27, 1844; September 26 and 30, 1845; Seeptember 29, 1848; September 26, 1851; October 1, 1852; September 29, 1859; September 28, 1860; October 2, 1863; September 27, 1866; November 15, 1867; September 29, 1870; September 28, 1872; September 25, 1873; September 28, 1877; September 26, 1884; October 1, 1885; September 30 and October 1, 1886; September 29, 1887; September 27, 1888; September 26, 1889; September 25, 1890; October 1, 1891; September 27 and 28, 1893; September 27, 1894; September 26, 1895; October 1, 1896; September 30, 1897; September 29, 1898; September 27, 1900; September 26, 1901; September 24 and 25, 1902; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 12, 1909; November 9 and 10, 1910.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

Sec. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee.

Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex-officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex-officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention, and to pay its Rector, so long as it shall remain in union with the Convention, in regular monthly or quarterly installments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum and to provide for him a suitable residence, or a reasonble allowance in lieu thereof; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such

Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established; and also, by a certificate executed by the authority of the Vestry or of the meeting, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such Church or Congregation is willing and able among its own members to raise at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its Rector, or to raise at least $1,200 for his salary and to provide for him a suitable residence or a reasonable allowance in lieu thereof.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall remain in office until the next Annual Convention and until his successor is appointed and shall have qualified. The Treasurer shall perform such duties as from time to time shall be prescribed by Canon, and shall act as financial agent for the Diocese for the receipt and disbursement of moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, except contributions for Domestic and Foreign Missions. He shall safely keep an account of all moneys or funds that shall come into his hands and shall deposit the same in such banks or places of deposit as the Committee on Diocesan Finances may authorize. He shall keep accurate books of account, which shall be open to inspection of the Committee on Diocesan Finances and give such information upon the finances of the Diocese and the conduct of his office as may be required by the Committee. He shall submit annually to the Convention a report of the receipts and disbursements of the Diocese. He shall give the bond or security that from time to time may be required by the Committee on Diocesan Finances, and the expenses therefore shall be paid out of the fund for Diocesan Expenses.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of the Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment shall be made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of each adult baptized; the name of each person confirmed; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law; the name of each person buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon* thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, Deputies to the Federate Council, and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, shall be as follows:

Any member of the Convention may place in the hands of the Secretary, in writing, on or before the Monday preceding the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, for members of the Federate Council and Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the first day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

SEC. 3. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor the two orders shall always vote separately.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at the regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

There shall be eight clerical and eight lay deputies from this Diocese to the Federate Council, who shall be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the Convention of 1911 the deputies who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, two clergymen and two laymen in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the deputies shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention two clerical and two lay deputies shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the deputies such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of deputies appointed to fill vacancies no deputy shall be eligible to the office of deputy until one year after the expiration of his term of office.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. The Standing Committee shall consist of four clergymen and four laymen, to be elected by ballot. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention of 1911 the members of the Standing Committee who shall be elected by that Convention shall divide themselves by lot into four classes, one clergyman and one layman in each class, to hold office for terms of one, two, three and four years respectively, and until the election of their successors, and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of the Committee shall have failed so to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide the members of the Committee into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention one clergyman and one layman shall be elected to hold their offices for four years. Vacancies occurring by death or otherwise shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the clerical and lay members of the Committee until the next stated Convention. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies no member of the Committee shall be eligible for membership for one year after the expiration of his term of office.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XV.

Committee on Diocesan Finances.

SEC. 1. (1) At every Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint four laymen and two clergymen, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Diocese, ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Diocesan Finances. Vacancies in said Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by a majority vote of the members of the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessment of money for any purpose shall be referred to this Committee, which shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds and co-operation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention. It shall keep a record of its meetings, and shall report to the Annual Convention.

(4) The Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese for the total of the amounts fixed by the Convention for the following objects, respectively:

(a) The Episcopal Fund.
(b) The Diocesan Fund.
(c) Diocesan Missions.

(5) The Treasurer, also, under such direction, shall make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

SEC. 2. (1) The assessment for the objects named in Section 1 (paragraph 4) shall be based upon the current expenses of each Parish, Mission or Congregation, as shown by its Annual Report.

For the purposes of determining the basis of assessment, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for the objects following, viz.:

Salaries and wages.

Lighting, heating, insurance, repairs and maintenance of buildings used for church purposes, supplies, and the support of services.

The notification to each Parish, Mission or Congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

The Treasurer shall classify the Parishes, Missions and Congregations according to the amount of the current expenses of each of them, and shall make assessments based on such classification.

(2) The annual report of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be presented on the first day of the Annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer.

(3) The Treasurer shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rate of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and the assessment in the case of each Parish, Mission or Congregation shall be sent to the corporate authorities thereof before the first day of February which notice shall invite said Parish, Mission or Congregation to appear before the Board of Adjustment and show cause, if any, why said assessment should be modified or corrected.

(4) The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of April, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

The amounts of such assessments shall be charged by the Treasurer of the Diocese against the Parishes, Missions or Congregations severally and respectively, and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of April, and the other on the first day of October next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same. It shall be the further duty of the Treasurer to report to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all the Parishes, Missions or Congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against such Parishes, Missions or Congregations for Diocesan purposes.

(5) The apportionment among the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of the current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of Parishes, Missions or Congregations shall be adopted as in the case of the assessment for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for the modifications, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for the Diocesan assessments shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments, except that they shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and not to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment, consisting of the Committee and the five Archdeacons ex-officio.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive and to consider any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the Parishes, Missions or Congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer of the Diocese by the first day of April in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and notify any Parish, Mission or Congregation if any change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustments as it shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any Parish, Mission or Congregation, for Domestic and Foreign Missions upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that it may make in any apportionment made by him.

SEC. 4. The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Diocese, and by any other Treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

Whenever the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall deem advisable it may confer with the Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and with any other Trustees or Boards of the Convention, and with the Treasurers of any organization under the jurisdiction of the Convention, for the purpose of harmonizing and simplifying the financial affairs and methods of the Convention and of the Diocese.

CANON XVI.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVII.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of its current expenses as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVIII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XIX.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively:

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items:

a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.

b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.

c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.

d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.

e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2nd. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows:

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Conven-

*"(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

". . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, tion, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2nd. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be applied as the Trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest:

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given caeteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XXI.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXII.

Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on competent medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging the duties of his cure, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the application of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon reasonable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXIII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIV.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the Bishop Coadjutor, or, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the senior Presbyter present, shall take the Chair.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. Reading of the Rules of Order.

2. In case of the absence of the Bishop, or his inability to act, and (if there be one) of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Convention shall elect a President.

3. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

4. The election of a Treasurer.

5. The appointment of members of six Standing Committees following, each of which Committees shall be composed of the number of clerical and lay members specified:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, two Clergymen and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention;

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, besides the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio;

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen;

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen;

(f) On Miscellaneous Business, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may report to the succeeding Convention.

The members of the Committees on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, on the Diocesan Fund, on the General Theological Seminary, on Canons, and on Miscellaneous Business, who shall be appointed at the Convention in 1911, at their first meeting, and within thirty days after the adjournment of the Convention, shall divide themselves by lot into classes of one Clergyman and one Layman in each class, one class to serve one year, and the others two, three and four years respectively, according to their number, and until the appointment of their successors and shall notify the Secretary of the Convention in writing of the result of such division. If after the expiration of forty days after the adjournment of the Convention the members of any Committee shall have failed to notify the Secretary, he shall at once proceed by lot to divide them into classes as aforesaid, and they shall respectively hold their offices accordingly. At each succeeding stated Convention the President shall appoint as members of each of the said Committees so many Clergymen and so many Laymen as those whose terms are expiring, to hold office for as many years as there are classes in such Committee. All vacancies occurring in the said Committees shall be filled by the concurrent vote of their Clerical and Lay members until the next stated Convention, when the vacancy shall be filled for the balance of the term. Except in the case of members chosen to fill vacancies until the next stated Convention no member shall be eligible to the same committee for one year after the expiration of his term of service.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, for Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention; one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but the reading of such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, may be dispensed with, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

(1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
(2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
(3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.
(4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
(5) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
(6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
(7) Report of the Sunday-school Commission.
(8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
(9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The election of Trustees of any of the foregoing Boards shall be in order in connection with the reception of their reports.

8. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, Deputies to the Missionary Council of the Second Department, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.

9. Miscellaneous business.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
6. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to him.
7. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
8. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
9. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
10. Report of the Committee on Canons.
11. Reports of Special Committees.
12. Miscellaneous business.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

VIII. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not be finished, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or finished, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

IX. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

X. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XI. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 p. m.

XIII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIV. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and all motions, when required by the Chair, shall be reduced to writing.

XV. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as herein provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it—or to substitute another for it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, or to substitute, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XVI. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. Every resolution offered shall be considered at once unless reference be requested. Reference may be requested by five members of every resolution, except such as may accompany the report of a committee. Such resolution shall be referred without debate by the President to the appropriate committee, or, if in the opinion of the President there be no such committee, then to a special committee, of such number as the President shall designate.

XVIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XX. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XXI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XXII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XXIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XXIV. Votes shall be taken by aves and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XXV. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXVI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXVII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XVIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIX. When a member is called to order by the Chair, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the Chair; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXXI. The majority of a quorum shall always be requisite to an election.

XXXII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.
